A happy and prosperous new year to you all.

The wife of W. H. Satterfield, Jr., died in Tennessee a few days ago.

The new aldermen recently elected will take the oath of office next Monday night.

Col. O. J. Lilly has moved into the residence he recently purchased on Murray's Heights.

Congressmen have already commenced sending out free seeds, being a few months earlier than common.

We have been revising our subscription list since Christmas, like preachers should do the church roll.

The water has commenced rising in some of our citizens wells that have been dry all the summer.

Our city presents a more dull appearance since the school boys have all gone home to spend Christmas.

Miss Birdie Meaders, who has been off teaching school, came up and spent Christmas with her relatives here.

Two weddings occurred up in Chestatee and Frog Town districts just before Christmas. The contracting parties being Mr. Martin Tow and Miss Sallie Caldwell. The second, Mr. Early Fields and Miss Margaret Stanch.

Rev. Joe Turner, of this county, married his first couple just before Christmas, and was excited so badly that he forgot to call for the license. After it was all over and he got out of the house some one asked him if he had not better look after the license, and he went back and the proper papers were turned over to him.

There was no opposition on election day to the nominated ticket for three new aldermen of Dahlonega and only seventy-three votes were polled. Less than a half dozen republican votes were cast, proving, as we have often said that republicans don't care to vote for democrats, and hereafter all democrats should make up their minds the same way.

It's right funny. During the recent city campaign for aldermen, little Billie Breches Signal, announced himself in favor of the combination ticket; crying out for economy, wanting the Marshal's salary reduced to one dollar a day. And at the same time two republicans went to Uncle John, the scavenger wagon driver, urging him to vote for this ticket so that he might receive $1.50 per day instead of his present price $1.00. The idea of a council that would allow the scavenger wagon driver a bigger salary than the marshal is ridiculous. Of course the men on the ticket knew nothing of this proposition, yet it had its effect.

Very often when a fellow marries he gets into trouble but it seems that Martin Guerin of this county, has received an extra dose.

After making a selection of one of the many beautiful girls in his section for a wife, he contracted with Robt. Patton to compose his love letters, agreeing, so Patton says, to give him $50 in case he succeeded in winning the heart of the young lady for the man who had learned to love her so dearly. Patton did his best, and wrote many beautiful soul stirring letters that eventually had the desired effect. The wedding occurred, and by and by Patton presented his bill for services rendered. It was not paid, and the above explains this novel $50 suit now pending in the Justice Court of Cane Creek district, Lumpkin county.

John Worley, who was shot in the arm some time ago has got so he can shoot rabbits with one hand.

Rev. Mr. Marks is keeping bachelors hall and does his own cooking. It is said that he can prepare a meals-victuals as quick and good as any lady.

A certain fellow was around the other day asking to borrow a few dimes to finish paying his taxes, and that evening when he left town he was intoxicated on extract of lemon-which costs ten cents a bottle.

For the first time we met Mr. Townsend of Pickens county, a few days ago, the father of cadet Townsend, who has been attending college at this place for some time. Mr. Townsend is like all other people by this name, nice and clever.

Sunday morning was very rainy, but by noon the sky was clear and the sun shining bright, and in the afternoon a blockader "drew nigh" to town and disposed of quite a quantity of mountain dew, causing several to feel quite happy and mellow.

Several gentlemen who use to work for Gen. Warner, in Cherokee county arrived some days ago and are now engaged at Crown Mountain mine. They suit the General and he suits them, and for this reason things will likely run along all smoothly at this big mining plant.

Mr. John Wilkins of this county, while in Dahlonega the other day informed us that he was 49 years old and never bought a store suit of clothes in his life. His clothing is all manufactured at home. If other farmers would follow his example and not depend on the market for what could be produced and manufactured at home there would be many more happy and prosperous households in this country than there are today.

For four days, the 17th, 18th, 19th, and 20th of December, Tax Collector Wimpy was here collecting state and county taxes, the latter part being turned over to the treasurer who was ready to pay it out as fast as the proper vouchers were presented and put into circulation again. The tax book was closed the 20th and executions issued against all defaulters early the following week and placed in the proper officers hands for collection.

The petition recently signed by nearly the entire population of Dahlonega receiving mail at this office asking that we be given a faster schedule from here to Gainesville, has been sent off and is now in the hands of the assistant postmaster general at Washington for his consideration. Other places are receiving its mail by fast trains and why not a little speed be put on the route between Dahlonega and Gainesville so we can all get our mail from that place in less than seven hours?

Some time ago the 7th grade of the public school here was cut off by the trustees of that institution. In our opinion it was a big mistake and should be restored. By this move it brings small boys and girls into college life and mixes them with older ones too early. Not only this, but it has increased the expenses of some of those who came here expressly for the purpose of receiving the benefits of the graded school because at was a free institution, owing to the fact that it costs more to attend college than it does the public school, and some are not able to dress their little boys up in uniforms and pay ten dollars for each child that has passed the 6th grade.

Bring along your job work and get ready for the years business.

Mr. J. B. Duckett, has moved his store from Dahlonega back up to his home in Crumby's district.

Col. O. J. Lilly, moving from the second to the Third Ward causes a vacancy on the council until next Monday night.

Com. Lindsey seems to think that home guards are not entitled to state pensions, nevertheless there are several on the list in this county.

The vouchers for all persons allowed a pension in Lumpkin county, widows included, have been received by Judge Huff, and are now ready to be filled out at his office.

There were one hundred and thirty-four fifas issued by the tax collector this year—less than the usual number. If six years were given to pay one years taxes some people would be belated any way.

We are glad to state that it was a mistake about Mrs. Nancy Chapman being dead in this county, who was recently allowed a pension by the state. It was Mrs. Sarah Wilson, whose claim was disappeared.

The Gainesville Eagles recent account of Uncle Eli Wehnt, while in the legislature from this county, reminds us of one of Hall's representatives some years ago when the state geologist asked him what the altitude of Gainesville was, and he stated that they were "principally Baptist." All the green people do not live in Lumpkin county.

Mr. G. W. Christy of this county, tells us that he made this year on a very small spot of ground 1,500 pounds of cabbage, and has already sold ten dollars worth right at home at one cent a pound, some of them weighing near 30 pounds. This item is given to show how profitable cabbage can be raised in this county.

It is stated by the teacher, that Etawah school house is not large enough to accommodate the pupils attending this school. The board of education has been appealed to but it won't give any aid on account of some two school houses being burned in that section by unknown parties who are opposed to prosperous schools being taught or something else that we are not aware of. Now the teacher asks if any one else is willing to help enlarge the present school house.

Not long before Christmas we learn that Green Marlow, of this county, who got into a little sheep trouble some time ago, set up a little still on his fathers-in-laws land near the foot of the Blue Ridge, and went to the old mans crib without leave or license and carried off a lot of corn and had it ground across the mountain in Union county, for the purpose of manufacturing it into liquor at the small plant before mentioned. His father-in-law procured a warrant but upon the promise of good conduct hereafter by young Marlow, dismissed the matter.

On Sunday the 21st ult., as Mr. David Seabolt, was crossing the ford in Mr. Al Anderson's field he came near losing his life. Not being acquainted with the ford he drove in and was soon in swimming water caused by the heavy rain that morning. A little boy was in the buggy with him, and the vehicle was soon overturned. He caught the boy by the arm and crawled up and out on a foot log that had been turned on its edge by the swollen stream. After reaching the bank in safety with the little fellow he returned to cut the harness so the mule could land. Then the buggy was unfastened from under the log and pulled out. Damage about $5.00.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JANUARY 1, 1903.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

Now let all pull for Dahlonega.

Elberton, Ga., has several cases of small pox.

Ordinary German of Fannin county, died recently.

Knoxville, Tenn., had a half million dollar fire on the 21st ult.

A permit has been issued for a $75,000 Methodist church in Atlanta.

Just before Christmas turkeys sold at 22 1/2 cents a pound in Atlanta.

The days have been getting a little longer since the 22nd of December.

On the 27th ult., seven men froze to death in a Pennsylvania snow storm.

Robbers secured $15,000 from a safe at Union, Mo., the other night and escaped.

There were 4,000 delinquent tax payers in Fulton county when the tax collector closed his book.

Thousands of cattle have stayed in northwestern Colorado on account of the heavy snow fall.

The recent blizzard seems to have extended all over the south, and killing frosts even in Florida.

Eva Thompson, a white woman, was sent to the stockade in Atlanta a few days ago 21 days for being drunk.

A woman recently went from Dawson City, Alaska, to Fort Worth, Texas, a distance of 5,200 miles to marry.

Mrs. Mary Rogers of Atlanta tried to hang her grand child the other day, claiming that she was doing her duty.

Fire destroyed the Star theater, a five story brick building in Atlanta last Monday. Damage about $100,000.

Christmas caused the police court to be right lively in Atlanta. On the 24th there were 161 cases, and on the 25th 63.

The Coke Company of Pennsylvania, advanced the wages of 6,000 men 8 per cent Christmas day which goes into effect today.

During Christmas Mr. Dock Barfield was killed by a negro named Will Laughdon in Crawford county, Ga., with a bed slat.

All the Georgia Colonels recently appointed by Gov. Terrell are ordered to dress up by April 1. Each one uniform will cost about $76.

Revenue Collector Ware and W. C. Thompson were fired upon one night last week in Heard county while approaching an illicit distillery.

The name of Commissioner of Agriculture Stevens has been mentioned in connection with gubernatorial honors by the Tattall Journal.

The recent legislature cost $3,327.52 less than the session held in 1901, caused by a bill being passed regulating committee expenses.

It has been discovered recently, so it is reported, that the thing called laziness is a germ. And they are in every town and city and very numerous.

Commissioner of Agriculture O. B. Stevens has entered the fruit growing business and has already planted 12,500 trees on his farm near Cornelia, and proposes to plant 12,500 more.

A man was arrested recently near Basking Ridge, N. J., for violating the game laws. The constable who arrested the man called Justice Bowen by telephone. His honor heard his evidence over the wire and fined the offender $20 and costs, which was paid.

Thirty Years at Porter Springs.

It is seldom that a summer resort is owned and managed for thirty consecutive years by the same person, but such is the history of "The Queen of the Mountains," Porter Springs, Lumpkin county, Ga. Col. Henry P. Farrow has just entered his thirtieth year as owner and manager of that popular resort in the upper edge of our county. He went there twenty-nine years ago in wretched health, suffering from sciatic and other forms of neuralgia and rheumatism, and was so rapidly and effectually cured by drinking and bathing in the water that he bought the place before he left there and resolved to spend a part of every year there as long as he lived. He has held several important official positions—four years Attorney General of Georgia, nine years United States Attorney for both the Northeast and Southern Districts of Georgia, four years Collector of Customs, Brunswick, Georgia, and for five years Postmaster, Gainesville, Georgia, but under all these varied conditions he has worked up to that resolution and whenever he felt worn down and needed rest he has come to "The Queen of the Mountains." And, astonishing to say, has never lost a day from sickness during these thirty years. He and Mrs. Farrow, with three grand sons, spent the last week or two there on a big Christmas hunt and had a good time.

Christmas Weddings.

The following parties of Dahlonega and Lumpkin county have wedded since our last issue, to-wit: On the 21st of December, Mr. Walter Rice to Miss Alice Calhoun, daughter of Mr. Allen Calhoun, by Rev. J. J. Shed.

Same date, Mr. Alias Grizzle to Miss Lou Wimpy.

Same date, Mr. John Rider of this county to Miss Louie Tucker of Dawson.

The 24th Mr. Charlie Kerr of Tennessee, to Miss Mand Worley, daughter of Mr. W. J. Worley of Dahlonega, by Rev. E. C. Marks. Same date, Mr. William Hartman to Miss Florence Rice, youngest daughter of Mr. Stephen Rice of Dahlonega, by Rev. D. J. Blackwell.

On the 27th, Mr. R. E. Fields to Miss Margaret Stancil of this county, by John Turner, J. P.

On the 28th, Mr. Charlie Thomas, of Dahlonega, to Miss Dona Beck, a daughter of Mr. "Bud" Beck of this county, Rev. D. J. Blackwell officiating.

Under provisions of a recent military bill passed by the Georgia legislature cadets will be organized in different colleges and schools having military features and hold encampments following commencements in the near future, including the following colleges and academies: University of Georgia at Athens, Richmond Academy at Augusta, Gordon Institute at Barnesville, Georgia Southern Military College at Bainbridge, Georgia Military Academy at College Park, Normal Institute at Cornelia, North Georgia Military College at Dahlonega, McDonough High School at McDonough, Reinart Normal School at Waleska.

The electric lights were turned on in the city last Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, from the Chestnut dam. They certainly help the appearance of the stores and business houses and those who have them are delighted. The lights, so far, are very good, and no doubt will continue so. They would have been turned on last Friday if all connections could have been made in time. Everything is working smoothly at the plant, and the company can promise good service.—Gainesville News.

The Standard Oil Co., has at last secured control of the Beaumont oil regions in Texas, and the Jennings oil fields of Louisiana.

The police were powerless to prevent the explosion of crackers and other fire works in Savannah Christmas and the fireman were kept busy extinguishing the flames caused from it. Sixty five arrests were made.

Millard Lee, who was to have been hanged in Atlanta before Christmas for the condemned murder of Miss Suttles, and was reprieved, says he wants to be hung, and does not care to go to the asylum.

On the passenger train between Blue Ridge, Ga., and Murphy, N. C., on the 24th ult., a row occurred between several desperadoes and the policeman of mineral bluff was dangerously stabbed while attempting to quell the disturbance.

Many of the tax collectors and receivers recently elected in Georgia have neglected to make their bonds and if it is not done by today new elections will be ordered. We note with pleasure that Lumpkin county's is not in the list.

The other day Philip Watson returned to Macon, Ga., after being absent 20 years from Georgia and found his wife married to another man. While in Texas Mr. Watson had heard in some way that his wife was dead, is the cause of his long absence.

There are many of the editors of the weekly press still crying out high taxes and big appropriations by the state. Send them to the legislature and they will do like the rest of the editors already there, be like the little boy the calf run over, have nothing to say.

A recent ruling of Commissioner of Internal Revenue Yerkes is of much interest to druggists and others who sell soft drinks with a "stick" in them. It is to the effect that all dealers who sell such drinks with even a small amount of distilled spirits, wine, or any compound wine, or any compound thereof, are required to pay a special tax as a retailer of liquor. This ruling will go into effect to day.

Mrs. Phil G. Bird has brought suit for a total divorce against her husband, the assistant adjutant general, charging cruelty, the habitual use of drugs and unfaithfulness. Mrs. Bird was a Miss Carrie Louise Montgomery, of Decatur, Ga., who had been wedded to Mr. Bird just three months from the time the suit was commenced. Mr. Bird, while his first wife was alive used to live in Dahlonega and is well known to all her people.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published. No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformant, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "sure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how mother was cured. I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have CURED for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are weary and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, anyway, and prove for yourself these claims I make. Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism, no matter where located, send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

Dissolution.

The firm of Price & Reese is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The said F. L. Reese retiring from the firm and the said W. P. Price, Jr., continuing the business. All creditors of said firm will present their demands to W. P. Price, Jr., for payment, and all persons owing said firm will settle with and be receipted therefor by W. P. Price, Jr. This December 31, 1902. W. P. PRICE, JR. F. L. REESE.

Consumption

Salt pork is a famous old-fashioned remedy for consumption. "Eat plenty of pork," was the advice to the consumptive 50 and 100 years ago.

Salt pork is good if a man can stomach it. The idea behind it is that fat is the food the consumptive needs most.

Scott's Emulsion is the modern method of feeding fat to the consumptive. Pork is too rough for sensitive stomachs. Scott's Emulsion is the most refined of fats, especially prepared for easy digestion.

Feeding him fat in this way, which is often the only way, is half the battle, but Scott's Emulsion does more than that. There is something about the combination of cod liver oil and hypophosphites in Scott's Emulsion that puts new life into the weak parts and has a special action on the diseased lungs.

A sample will be sent free upon request.

Be sure that this picture is the mark of a label on the wrapper of every bottle of Scott's Emulsion. SCOTT & BOWNE, CHEMISTS, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. 50c. and $1; all druggists.

Pittsburg, Kansas, had a lynching bee on Christmas day. Montgomery Golley, who shot and killed policeman Milton Hinkle, was swung to the end of a rope after first having his throat cut. It since turns out that the recent lynching in Kansas was an innocent man.

The dwelling, one horse and buggy and a lot of corn of U. S. Com. Buck Candler, of Blairsville, was burned on the night of the 18th of December. Supposed to be the work of a blockader. The governor has offered a reward of $100 for the arrest and proof sufficient to convict the perpetrator.

John Daley, a Union veteran of Kansas, refused to accept a pension of $12 a month, a private act passed by one of the congressmen, and returned the check to the department stating that he didn't need it and that the government was paying out too much money already. The pension bureau sent an agent down to Kansas to see if the old man wasn't crazy, but found him all right. The money is being kept for him in case he changes his mind.

Backed by the opinion Attorney General John C. Hart, Comptroller General W. A. Wright is going to proceed in the collection of $900 state tax from parties selling malt and spirituous liquors under United States tax during the year 1902. The names of over 700 parties who sold liquor under government licenses have been secured and these names have been forwarded to the various tax collectors of the state with instructions to collect the tax or issue fines against them.

Ever since the morning of November 6, when the bodies of Rev. W. E. Rabe and Miss Augusta Busch, a church missionary, were found in the pastor's study in the rear of the German Baptist church at Omaha clasped in each other's arms and cold in death, the congregation that was wont to worship there has been gradually falling away, until at last it has been decided to tear down the little wooden church or move it to some other part of the city. Since the tragedy those members of the congregation in whom is a vein of superstition have talked much of the wrath of God in connection with the death of the minister and the missionary and they are filled with superstitious dread.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JANUARY 1, 1903.

College re-opens next Tuesday morning.

Mr. J. A. Howard left first of the week on a two weeks visit north.

Mr. J. C. Tate of Willow, left this morning for Birmingham, Ala., and may remain.

Messrs. J. B. Anderson and Hughes Anderson have moved to Birmingham, Ala.

Services were held at the Methodist church Christmas day at 11 o'clock but few attended.

Mrs. Fannie Hatfield of Monticello, Ga., has been up spending Christmas with her parents.

Mrs. M. G. Head of this place, has been spending Christmas among relatives at Monroe, Ga.

Eggs were so high and scarce here Christmas that those having the whiskey had to do without the nog.

The house occupied by the Benson women, across the Chestate river, was destroyed by fire Christmas day.

Lemon extract and other substitutes for liquor went like hot cakes at a muster here, before and during Christmas.

Don't forget to renew your subscription. It is very important that you do this as not to miss a single copy of the NUGGET.

Those who had been drinking Christmas day enjoyed the cold weather which furnished plenty of ice water the next morning.

An infant of Jack Townsend died last Friday at this place and was carried up to Yahoola cemetery for interment the next day.

Mr. B. F. Hatfield, who left Dahlonega some years ago for Monticello, Ga., spent Christmas with his relatives and friends in Dahlonega.

We can always tell when Postmaster Farrow is at home. The Atlanta morning papers come through the day they are published. They don't do this every time when he is absent.

A dwelling on the property near Auraria known as the "Big Five Company," was burned a few nights before Christmas, being the work of an incendiary.

Marion Edmons, charged with malicious mischief, made bond last week. Also John H. Adams on a peace warrant sworn out by Jess Satterfield, Sr.

We have been transferring our list of subscribers to a new book and if any mistakes have occurred we will be glad to rectify them when made known of the fact.

For the first time we met Mr. A. J. Julian, one of Forsyth county's most enterprising farmers last week while he was up on a visit to his daughters here, Mrs. O. J. Lilly.

We learned of one fellow that got his license to marry Christmas, who afterwards got drunk and burned them up. No doubt it was the best thing that ever happened for the girl.

Dr. Head and Mr. Jim Tate went out into the country last Christmas afternoon to spend a short while and some one hid their harness and they had to foot it back over three miles.

Christmas day while Mr. Thomas Tate was driving down the Mahew road pretty rapidly, his buggy turned over in making a short curve causing his face to get skinned and bruised up considerably.

Elsas Grizzle of this county, who was refused a divorce at the last term of Lumpkin Superior court on the grounds that he had a living wife in the asylum, married before Christmas. He was tired of living alone and is willing to risk the chances of being punished by the law in order to get one to share his happiness and troubles.

Mr. Charlie Kerr and wife left for Gainesville last Sunday.

Mrs. Charlie McAfee spent Christmas with relatives in Atlanta.

The newly elected members of the city council take their official seats Monday night.

Mr. W. B. Anderson and Mr. Van Crow left last Tuesday for Alabama to work a while.

Send in and get 1,000 packet heads nicely printed on good paper for $1.75 at the NUGGET office.

It is useless for young girls to marry young men that drink liquor thinking that they will reform them.

Mr. B. P. Gaillard of Gainesville, was up during Christmas, shaking hands with his many friends here.

Prof. Martin, principal of the public-school here, has been down to his old home at Perry, Ga., spending Christmas.

FOR SALE.—Two yoke young cattle and one span of coming spring three-year-old mules. Apply to Miller Davis, Two Run.

Moore Bros., the livery men, have moved to the Thomas stable, near the Methodist church, where they will be found at all hours ready to wait upon the public.

A lady of Dahlonega has fallen out with Santa Claus. She hung up one of her striped hose and Santa thinking that he had reached a barber shop left a razor, brush and a bar of shaving soap.

A large number of mules have been sold in Dahlonega within the past few weeks, a much larger number than ever before, showing those who want stock that it pays to advertise for them in the NUGGET.

Judge Huff received a telephone message from Cleveland last Tuesday, stating that there was a crazy negro woman up there by the name of Riley from Lumpkin county. We expect they meant Wyley.

The colored people enjoyed a dance Christmas night in Anderson & Jones' Hall. It is said that the whole crowd only had a gallon of liquor for the occasion, causing it to be very quiet, and only lasted until midnight.

Billie Green and Sam Hamilton, both colored, came near being drowned Saturday before Christmas in the Chestate river out at the Gorge while in a boat looking after the interest of the company when the river was swollen.

On Saturday, up at Yahoola, Mr. Joe Nath Wilkins was bound over by John Anderson, Esq., charged with stealing one of "Shotgun" Walker's hogs, but it is thought by some of Mr. Wilkins' friends that he will come out all right before a jury.

The only railroad news we have this week is that we heard a gentleman who is interested in this enterprise, remark last week that the electric line would be completed from Gainesville to Dahlonega "by this time next year." This is good enough, isn't it?

Mr. James Stancil of this county, was bound over by Com. Baker last Saturday, charged with the offense of blockading, who made bond and will pay Judge Newman a visit in Atlanta next spring when his place of business is opened for the reception of visitors.

Mr. John P. Corn, one among the oldest citizens of this county, died at his home in Mill Creek district on Christmas night suddenly. He called his wife once and by the time Mrs. Corn arose and struck a light her husband was breathing his last. The deceased has been a resident of Lumpkin county ever since we can remember and is well known to all its citizens. He was one among the few of this county who drew a pension for services rendered in the Mexican war.

The young lady and gentleman who stood out on the front porch last Monday acted like lovers. Every time he placed his hand on her back bone she would jump like she was bitten by a snake, but stood her ground and didn't run. Then the same thing would occur again.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hartman left last week for Barnesville, Ga., where Mr. Hartman goes to accept a position to run an electric plant. This young man has been in the employ of the Consolidated Co. here for more than two years and never failed to give satisfaction. He is a very industrious, steady young man, and is bound to succeed in life if he keeps his health.

Rev. J. N. Austin of Wahoo district, has been down sick for some time suffering with rheumatism, and he wishes to extend his heartfelt thanks through the columns of the NUGGET to Mrs. Harvie Parks and Miss Mattie Huggins and family for Christmas presents sent him, and many thanks to the men and boys for cutting and hauling wood to keep him good fires in his affliction.

Messrs. B. R. Meaders & Sons started to Gainesville last Tuesday with a car load of mules which will be shipped from that city to the lower part of Georgia. Messrs. Joseph McGee and J. M. Brooks also left on the same day with about the same number. Messrs. Anderson, Jones, Littlefield and Tate are also buying up a load and will be ready to start off in a week or ten days.

Work is progressing on the street railway in Gainesville as fast as the weather will admit. About a mile and a half of track is already down and as soon as it is completed in the city all hands will be put to work laying the track on the main line from Gainesville to Dahlonega. The company has the charter for a road to this place and it means to put it through, and in a very few months.

Postmaster Tate made a special report to the department about the lateness of the mail between this place and Gainesville recently, caused by being overloaded. It is impossible for the two-horse stage, some times having on four or five passengers, baggage and all the mail, to make the trip according to schedule time. And for this reason the patrons of the office are grumbling, and have good reasons for doing it.

Everything was quiet and orderly over in Wahoo district on Christmas day, but on the Sunday before a number of men got drunk and had a big time. Some of them got so full of whiskey that they lay down in the mud and wallowed like hogs. But the strangest sight was to see the actions of a married man and another man's wife, publicly convincing all who saw them that their love was very warm for each other.

Mr. Samuel Brice, a young gentleman of Dawson county, who is at college studying dentistry, was in Dahlonega a few days ago with a view of locating here. After looking around a day or two he assured parties that he would return and settle among us as soon as he completed his college course in April, provided that no other dentist came before that time. We extend to Mr. Brice a hearty welcome.

A few days ago some women of a disreputable character got their house and contents burned. They have been around with a petition, asking for aid but at last accounts had received but little. A few years ago one of these women wanted to join a certain Methodist church and endeavor to turn a new leaf, but they wouldn't receive her. What is to become of such people if they are not allowed or assisted to do right when they want to? What is your mission business for? Very often to give some preachers a pleasure trip into a foreign country. That's all.

Mr. W. A. Waters of this county, sold from one sow alone last year $20.15 worth of pigs and has five left which he expects to kill next fall. Mr. Waters carried these pigs down in to Forsyth county and sold them where the stock law is in force. This pays much better than raising cotton.

A few evenings before Christmas Mrs. T. J. Smith of this place had the misfortune to lose a portion of two fingers and thumb of her right hand by the explosion of a fire cracker, which she stuck in a brass cartridge shell and had lit it and going to hand it to her little child when it exploded with the above results.

We hope that Gen. Warner and his associates will soon get the town heated by electricity. It will be so nice to be fixed so when the time comes to build a fire that all you will have to do will be to get up and press a button and the room will soon be warm. Besides this, a dollar's worth of electricity will go farther than a cord of wood that costs $1.50, besides a half dollar for cutting it, up provided you don't get it yourself.

Little Billie Signal had a trial last Saturday before Mayor Baker and was fined one and four dollars cost for giving an out door performance the Sunday night before at about 12 o'clock, at his residence on Murray's Heights. Billie first commenced the entertainment by giving the common jug waltz. Then he rolled an organ out on the porch, stood on his head and played "After the Ball is Over," and kept his wife's big trunk whirling around in the air with both feet until some of the neighbors were called in and requested to send for the marshal.

Now is the time to advertise and get your goods and prices before the people for the new year. Some of the merchants here grumble about people going from this county to Gainesville to trade. Why do they do it? Because they are extended an invitation by the merchants of that city through the columns of the newspapers. They all advertise and do a good business, simply because they ask the trading public to come to see them. Don't you know if it didn't pay the merchants of Gainesville and at other prosperous places to advertise that they wouldn't do it?

Christmas in Dahlonega passed off very quiet and orderly, and but few violators of the city ordinances occurred. The mayor would not give any one permission to shoot fire crackers, which caused the little folks' fun to be cut short to some extent. It was very unpleasant to them but it was better to be this way than to endanger the loss of the town by fire. Really for a boy to get out and pop a fire cracker or a man to drink a bottle of liquor just because Christ was borned on that day seems to be a little out of order, although it has been the custom. The only row occurring took place between Mr. Tom Ray and Mr. Hughes Moore, but friends interfered before anything serious occurred.

On the 24th of December Mrs. W. J. Burt of Bartsboro, attempted to kill a Miss Trammell, granddaughter of Uncle Pete Trammell, residing near that place, because, as she said, that Mrs. Burt thinks her husband and the girl are on too friendly terms. The girl had gone into Mr. Burt's store to look at some ladies hose, which were being shown her by the merchant, and Mrs. Burt made a stroke at her with a knife, inflicting an ugly wound in the left side of the girl's neck. Then Mrs. Burt started to run when she is reported, her husband struck his wife on the neck or head, causing her to break out some lights in a window. She got out the door and ran off up the road as Mr. Burt cast a weight and rock at her as she disappeared. The only eye witness to the affair was Mr. W. L. Perry, who was in the store from beginning to finish, and his brother, John Perry, was on the outside and witnessed only what took place out there.

Eggs are now worth only 16 cents per dozen.

Prof. Steel and lady spent Christmas at Macon.

See notice of dissolution of Price & Reese in another column.

Mr. Walter and Joseph Rice returned to Alabama Tuesday.

The county school commissioner is now paying off the school teachers.

Mr. Sam McDonald of this county, will move to Alabama next week.

Beginning with this year, Mayor Baker says he will make his fines heavier.

Hughes Moore was fined one and cost yesterday for fighting Christmas.

Rev. Mr. Gunn of Atlanta, will preach at the Baptist church here next Sunday at 11 o'clock.

Our office was visited last Tuesday by Miss Mollie Perry, of Tate, Ga., who called to renew her subscription to the NUGGET.

Gen. Warner has been absent for several days in Ohio and New York, but is expected back this week or the first of next.

Mr. Hammond, father of cadet Hammond, who attends college here, died a few days ago at Griffin very suddenly while sitting talking to some gentlemen.

Miss Burnett of Mississippi, who is attending college in Gainesville, returned last Tuesday after spending Christmas with Miss Blanche Gurley of Dahlonega.

Mr. John H. Moore has moved his market and grocery store into the Simmons building, where he asks for his customers to give him a call.

As we have said before, sometimes mistakes occur in putting names on our mailing list, or in correcting. Let us know if you fail to receive your paper or a mistake occurs in the date of payment.

J. F. Moore & Co. extend to the public a happy new year's greeting, and wish to announce that they will still continue to keep in stock a full line of all kinds of goods to sell cheap for cash.

All who are indebted to J. M. Brooksher or J. E. McGee must settle by January 10, 1903, or you will find everything in the hands of an officer for collection.

A. W. ANDERSON, Manager, Brooksher Stand.

At a meeting of the city council Monday night councilman McGee resigned as treasurer and councilman Frank Jones was elected in his place till the meeting of the new council next Monday night. Mr. McGee was going to be absent and was unable to attend to it.

The NUGGET is liked at home and abroad. Mr. H. H. Farr of Eaton, O., in writing this week to us says: "The NUGGET is a welcome visitor to my office on account of mining the news." And Mr. J. J. McCabe of Dayton, O., writes: "I read it with much interest."

A number of persons gave the pastor of the Methodist church their hands last Sunday and adopted a new set of resolutions for 1903. Now if there are any who are not subscribers to the NUGGET let them send in and have something to keep them happy all the year.

The firm of Price & Reese having been dissolved by mutual consent and having purchased Mr. Reese's interest in the business, including all accounts, I now desire to say to our customers that I am located at the same old stand, ready and anxious, with a full line of goods in every department, to supply them with everything they need at prices that will be to their interest. Wishing you all a happy new year and trusting that you will give me as liberal a patronage in the future as you have in the past, I am yours Respectfully, W. P. PRICE, JR.

Mining Notes.

The mining outlook for the new year is very bright.

The clean up down at the Lockhart by those having a lease on it, was very satisfactory.

Work will commence on the new mining boat for the Chestate river as soon as a sufficient amount of lumber is ready.

Since the holidays and extreme cold weather have passed the miners have resumed work and we anticipate a prosperous year.

Mr. Marion Chester is now superintendent of the copper mine in this county. The other gentleman who was in charge had to go home.

We had the pleasure of seeing the last clean up made down at the Calhoun mine, after it was burned off. It was about half as large as a common size apple and very beautiful.

Since the cold wave mining at the Benning and Singleton is moving along about as usual, by the company, and those having leases on the Standard property are making it profitable.

It is said that the Briar Patch Co. anticipate cutting the Nimbleshaw canal as well as the one from Peck's mill in this county, which will open up the best mining field in this whole country.

At the copper mine work is progressing continuously in the shaft. Heretofore the drilling has been done by hand making it slow, but now an air compressor has been put in position which will enable them to push the work much more rapid.

Messrs. W. C. Thomas and E. Garrett, who have been engaged down on the Ivey property, are still at work, satisfied with results. There are has to be hauled to the Lockhart mill before it can be crushed, two miles or more, making it much more expensive than if a mill was more convenient on the property. Mr. F. V. Moore is also doing some work on the same lot.

J. F. Allen, W. D. Hart and A. T. Woods this morning filed an application for a charter for the Appalachian Gold Mining, Smelting and Refining Company, to be capitalized at $2,500,000. The company will purchase and develop mineral lands and will pay particular attention to mining gold. Ten per cent of the capital stock of the company is to be paid in before operations begin. Atlanta News.

Capt. R. R. Asbury of White county, and Mr. Lee Wild of North Carolina, have the contract of cutting the Cavender's Creek canal in this county. It is nine and a half miles in length and heads at the old Spencer mill place near Porter Springs. Capt. Asbury was in the city yesterday and informed us that they would begin the work next Monday, having until the first of June to complete it. The hands will be given an order on the Dahlonega Bank every week for their money.

The weather for several days past has not been favorable for dam work by any means. A portion of the time mill dams were frozen over, and on last Monday it commenced raining and froze on the trees and the ground as fast as it fell for some time. At noon it commenced moderating and it cleared off that night, thus ending the coldest wave of the season. This is why nothing was done on the Gorge dam for several days. It is now from 8 to 12 feet high and out of danger of freshets.

The cold wave ceased first of the week and the full 50 stamps and Huntington mills at the Crown Mountain gold mine were put in motion last Monday about noon, and the plates are showing up unusually well. All three of the cuts are being operated and in such a condition that when the weather is favorable three men in each during the day only, keep the mill running on full time both day and night. Under such economical management as this the mine is bound to pay handsome profits.

Making Love Over the Wire.

"I don't know whether people fall in love by telephone nowadays or not," said the man who used to run a store in an interior village, according to the Detroit Free Press, "but in my time there was a good deal of romance behind the 'hollo.' I had my share of it. One day I got a new voice over the wire from a town a few miles away. It was a woman's voice and I immediately fell in love with it. I got to holding chats with her when business was dull, and the more we chatted the more I was in love. It came to be courting by telephone, and there was a good deal of romance in it. I was mighty careful not to let any of the folks in town get on to my little racket, and nobody suspected anything when I started off one day to lay my heart at the unknown's feet. About all I knew of her was that she was single. I pictured to myself a girl of about 20, with chestnut hair, dark blue eyes, handsome teeth and peach cheeks, and I meant she would say 'yes' before I came away."

"Well, it was very funny," laughed the relator as he gave his leg a hearty slap. "The idol of my heart turned out to be a raw-boned, slab-sided and homely old maid of 48, with a face on her to sour milk. Her eyes were on the squalor, her nose turned up and she had teeth as big as a yearling colt's. I stood stock still and stared at her in amazement, and I was wondering how I could get out of it without a breach of promise suit when she pointed to the door, and in that same sugary voice which had won my love, she exclaimed:

Go, base villain! How dare you, a bow-legged, lop-shouldered, wood-enfaced old man, come here to ask me to be your wife!"

"You bet I got," concluded the merchant, "and I patted myself on the back, as a lucky fellow while I made tracks. There were several other women on my telephone circuit with a soft purr to their voices, but I was not making love to any more over the wire. It was too deceptive and too dangerous."

Price for Pie.

Sycamore (Ill.) editors have a queer difference that threatens to baffles settlement. One of the offices is located on the ground floor and has a large show window in which the apples, peaches, pears and other fruits are displayed. Another office is located on the second floor, has no show window, and in consequence all the good things going are given to the editors who is able to make something of a display with the names of the donors tacked on each exhibit. Now the editor of the other paper has offered a prize for the best pumpkin pie brought in by DeKalb county housewives or their daughters. Not content with one pie, from which the award is to be made, he asked for two, is getting them, and now there is a steady flow of beautiful women and pies up the stairs of the elevated editor.

Dispatches from Australia tell of an extraordinary red dust storm on November 12, accompanied by the falling of fireballs, which set fire to several buildings in Melbourne. A violent volcano eruption took place in Senau at the same time, and it is thought there may have been some connection between the two disturbances.

The supreme court of Georgia recently handed down a decision which the Christian Scientists regard as a great victory for their sect. It was a case in which the father refused to allow medicine to be administered to his minor child, and the child died. The court held parents are not compelled to administer medicine to their minor child when ill.

The slaughter of cattle suffering from foot and mouth disease has begun in Massachusetts. The carcasses will be shot and the animals immediately burned or buried. The animals condemned to death will be appraised and paid for by the government.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

It doesn't take a great deal of kissing of lips to kiss away all the sweetness.

Not one woman in a thousand knows the difference between loving and being loved.

When a red-headed woman hasn't a red-headed temper, it is a sign it is bleached.

Seldom does a woman love a man without, and seldom a man love a woman, complete self-abnegation.

Worry makes everybody thin except fat people who worry over their fatness.

The man who wouldn't be a fool over the right woman doesn't deserve to have the right woman to be a fool over him.

Engaged people put on magnifying glasses when they look at each other's virtues. The day they are married they take them off.

A woman's imagination is so lively that if her bare feet were in a tub of snow she would believe that a handsome fur around her neck was keeping her warm.

Getting engaged is like running to a fire after they are married they walk back.

The man who teaches women to smoke always marries one who won't let him do it himself.

"Next week," announces a Missouri editor, who, has the sheldon episode still fresh in mind, "we will be running this paper as Jesse James would have run it. Delinquent subscribers may expect a call from us with their accounts stuck in the muzzle of a six shooter. Otherwise this paper will have to be run as the sheriff would run it."

Excess Of Smoking Affected My Heart

So I Had To Sit Up
To Breathe.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure
Cured Me.

There is nothing that has a more deleterious effect upon the cardiac or heart action than the excessive use of tobacco. Pain and tenderness around the heart, an oppressive feeling in the chest, choking sensation in the throat, discomfort from sleeping on the left side and smothering spells at night when the sufferer has to sit up in bed to breathe are the most common symptoms of a weak heart. Smokers who feel these symptoms and who do not understand their meaning should be warned in time by the following experience: "I was greatly troubled with an affection of the heart, and after consulting a physician to begin a course of treatment which included Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, Dr. Miles' Nerve and Nerve and Liver Pills, together with bathing, etc. I faithfully followed the directions given and am pleased to say that my cure is complete and permanent. Before beginning the use of my remedy I was so nervous I could not keep my hands still and suffered greatly from severe pains around the heart. Many times at night I would be forced to assume a sitting posture to get my breath, and for the time being it would seem as though my heart had stopped beating. From the beneficial results achieved in my case I can cheerfully recommend Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, Nerve and Nerve and other remedies to all sufferers from heart or nervous troubles. Yours truly, EDGAR HALL, DeKalb, Ala.

At Canton And Wants The Nugget.

CANTON, GA., Dec. 26, 1902.
ED. NUGGET:
I will try Canton, Ga., awhile. I think I will like it fine. There is a lot of work here. There is a cotton mill, a marble mill, a brick yard, and other work too tedious to mention. Well Will, you can send my paper to Canton, instead of Marble Hill, and I reckon when I renew my subscription I will have to take a dozen papers so we can all have one to read at the same time. There are eleven of us and we all want to read the NUGGET first. Lumpkin is my old home and I like to hear the news from every locality through the columns of the NUGGET.

J. J. HULSEY.

As Good as New.

"How about those good resolutions you made the first of the year?"
"Oh, they are still good."—Smart Set.

Girls are weak creatures at best, yet the weakest of them is capable of throwing a strong man over with the greatest of ease.

Low.

Some Prices in 1815.

From an old journal that was kept in 1815 by a merchant of Oswego it would appear that it cost the citizens of that city something to live in those days. Anthracite coal was unknown, and for illuminating purposes candles and whale oil were used. Salt in those days was as much a necessity as now, but it cost $1.25 per bushel, or $5.38 per barrel. Whiskey was worth $1 a gallon, tea $9 a pound, corn $1 a bushel, tobacco 44 cents a pound, sugar 26 cents per pound, loaf 31 cents a pound, cambric $1 a yard, dimity $1 per yard, molasses $1.44 a gallon, raisins 50 cents per pound, shirting 38 cents per yard, potatoes 44 cents per bushel, rye and wheat $1.40 per bushel, red flannel 85 cents per yard, oil, $1 per gallon. The drinker and the smoker had a good time in those early days, and the family man had it not nearly so good. Now, happily, whiskey and tobacco cost more and necessities cost very, very much less. Dress goods and foods cannot be used freely by those who, if living in 1815, would have had a calico dress once in several years and had sugar but very seldom. The "old days" were not as good as these.—Retail Groceries' Advocate.

A Branch of Etiquette.

In Holland a woman is a secondary consideration, and a poor consideration at that. No Dutch gentleman when walking on the sidewalk will move out of his way for a lady. The latter turns out invariably, however muddy or dangerous the street. Ladies very rarely make any requests of the lords of creation. An American woman asked a Holland gentleman at a party to bring her a certain book from a table. The bewildered stare with which he favored her convinced her that she had committed a conventional offense. He brought the book, but quietly informed her that a Holland gentleman would never have asked such a favor.

Snakes in menageries often fast many months. Cases were recorded at the Paris Museum of a rattlesnake which refused food 26 months and a python which fasted 29 months. But the record belongs to a Japanese python which arrived in Paris in November, 1890. It died in April, 1902, after having refused food for two years five months and three days. During that time its weight had decreased from 76 kilograms to 27.

A little girl of Mrs. Margaret Kilgo was burned to death near Marietta a few days ago.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JANUARY 8, 1903.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O. as Second Class Matter.

Official Organ of both City and County.

Atlanta's fire loss for 1902 is $408,000.

The police of Atlanta made 15,088 cases during 1902.

The postoffice at Rosville, Ga., was robbed again a few nights ago.

Hon. Charles S. Moses will introduce a bill in June to let the state road.

Mr. B. H. Parks has been re-elected chief of police of Gainesville for another year.

Fifty thousand mules were sold in Atlanta last year at an average price of $115 per head.

Fifty fishers were drowned during the recent terrific storm which swept the Gulf of Riga.

Atlanta has had a sick elephant on her hands. This, together with her old depot is pretty bad.

Fifteen hundred marriage licenses were issued by the ordinary of Fulton county during 1902.

Associate Justice Little resigned his position last week and Hon. J. R. Lamar was appointed to fill his place.

According to the latest mail advices from the Philippines the number of deaths from cholera has reached 113,278.

A nineteen-year-old boy was arrested in New York last week for trying to cut off a woman's hand to get her diamonds.

Nine boys are dead from lockjaw at Norfolk, Va., caused by the explosion of toy pistols. And 18 deaths from same cause at other places.

On the 3rd inst., in Pennsylvania in the heart of a mining village, over 6,000 feet of earth caved in swallowing one hotel and several other houses.

A workman at the fertilizer plant in Atlanta found an infant in one of the sulphuric tanks the other day, being the work of some hard hearted person.

Attorney General Hart is of the opinion that county boards of education can borrow the money for the purpose of paying teachers and other necessary expenses for the operation of schools.

It is reported that Charles F. Howe, 1855 W. Ninety-fifth Place, Chicago, Ill., contemplates the improvement of the Ocmulgee river near Gainesville, with a view to long-distance transmission of power for industrial purposes.

It seems that President Roosevelt will force the negroes on the white, as he has ordered that the postoffice at Indianola, Miss., be closed until the people of that town are willing for a negro woman to look after the mails.

On January the first fire gutted the inside walls of the Ohio penitentiary, operated by the National Broom Co., causing great alarm among the 2,000 prisoners who feared the flames would spread to the cell blocks where they were kept locked.

The Standard Oil Company is preparing to inaugurate a pension plan for its employees. Consumers will be as usual be permitted to participate to the extent of contributing the money to pay the increased cost, truthfully remarks the Columbus Sun.

There is now on exhibition at the state capital a gold nugget weighing 70 and a fraction pennyweights, which is valued at $70. This nugget is called Cherokee in honor of the county in which it was found. The nugget is flat in shape and is pure gold. The finder of the nugget refuses to state just where it was found, as he hopes to put out a gold mine and has not succeeded in purchasing the property on which the vein is thought to lie.—Atlanta News.

Smith Harris, who is in the U. S. Army, now stationed at Detroit Mich., was at home to see his folks in Hall last week. Mr. Harris and Capt. Fred Price, who is also in service in the West, will leave for the Philippines about the last of February.—Eagle.

A new order of things in hearing applications for pardons will be inaugurated by the prison commission with the advent of the new year. Cases filed during any given month will be set for a hearing beginning the first Monday in the succeeding month and the hearings will continue until the docket is cleared, just as is done in the supreme court.

If Grover Cleveland is a "live wire," as a contemporary suggests, the democracy will be severely shocked if it handles him, observes the Pensacola Journal. One thing is certain, democrats can have no hope of accomplishing anything by the use of a "dead wire." A few galvanic shocks from a real live wire would at least wake things up.—Columbus Sun.

Deputy Sheriff Duckett arrested Bill Ward Monday on a charge of pointing a pistol at Jess Hix. Ward was arrested and sentenced by the city officials last summer for choking his wife, and skipped the county after working out part of his fine. Returning from Lumpkin county, where he has been working in the gold mine, Christmas he raised a disturbance with Jess Hix with the results above mentioned. Later the case was dismissed by Judge Loden.—Eagle.

Many tales have been told of the poor pay and suffering of the anthracite miners. The sympathy of the country has been aroused for them, but they do not seem to have much sympathy for the people suffering for coal, nor do they seem to be in very great need even after five months of idleness, since most of them seem to be taking a week's Christmas holiday, intensifying the distress from lack of coal. The American people seem to have wasted a great deal of unnecessary sympathy.—Manufacturers record.

State School Commissioner W. B. Merritt stated last week that he would pay the two months back salary, which is due the state public school teachers for services during last April and May, between the 10th and 15th of the present month. The amount of salary due the teachers is $800,000 and as soon as all the reports have been received from the county school commissioners and the money is in the state treasury the checks will be sent out. Commissioner Merritt also states that the salary for January will be paid in February and the salary will be paid promptly on time for this year.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering. Together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published. No matter what your form of Rheumatism is whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deforming, sciatic, neuralgic, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "sure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how mother was cured. I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write me this day and week of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are scorned and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as incurable. All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you your own experience. Surely, if you have willpower you to invent any offer, any way, and prove for yourself these claims I make. Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any Rheumatism, no matter where their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

Dahlonega's City Treasury.

The report of the Finance committee shows that Dahlonega's treasury is in a much healthier condition than that of the county as will be seen by the following:

Amount in treasury	$484.15
In marshal's hands	108.58
Total	$592.73
Unpaid accounts—
Fi. fa. property tax	$24.00
Sanitary tax	54.25
Street tax	54.50
Total	$132.75

Enough money to run the public school till June, including the amount received from the state, has been collected and paid over to the trustees.

We have often said that our city fathers were conducting the business of the city all right. So here's the proof.

County Treasurer's Report.

The following is the report of J. B. Brown, C. T., from Oct. 15, 1902 to January 6th, 1903:

Total	$5753.80
Paid out as per vouchers—
County fund	$4413.27
Bridge fund	207.22
Jury fund	882.70
Jail fund	155.87
Pauper fund	216.31
Total	$5416.37
Balance on hand	$337.43
Due W. B. Davis	$302.08
Interest	20.26
Total	$322.34
Which will leave a balance in treasury of $15.18.

J. B. Brown, C. T.

The business men will do well to bear in mind that the law relative to the sale of cigarettes is so amended as to include not only those who sell or give away cigarettes, or cigarette papers, but also those who keep them accessible to customers. This regulation was made because of the inclination of some dealers to keep their cigarettes under the counter, or in some place where they could not be seen, and effect sales at opportune times.

Proverbs

"When the butter won't come put a penny in the churn," is an old time dairy proverb. It often seems to work though no one has ever told why.

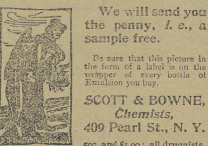

When mothers are worried because the children do not gain strength and flesh we say give them Scott's Emulsion.

It is like the penny in the milk because it works and because there is something astonishing about it.

Scott's Emulsion is simply a milk of pure cod liver oil with some hypophosphites especially prepared for delicate stomachs.

Children take to it naturally because they like the taste and the remedy takes just as naturally to the children because it is so perfectly adapted to their wants.

For all weak and pale and thin children Scott's Emulsion is the most satisfactory treatment.

We will send you the penny, i. e., a sample free. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. 50c and $1.00; all druggists.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JANUARY 8, 1908.

Mrs. Hutchins is quite sick.

See county treasurer's report.

The letter of Mr. Henry Woody will appear next week.

Mr. Will Childers is back again shaking hands with the boys.

The new booth for the telephone office here, will be in position in a few days.

A new lot of blank notes just printed. Come or send when you want any, cheap.

There are better times in store for the people of Lumpkin county. Mark our prediction.

U. S. Deputy Marshal Grizzle has purchased the old Joe Parker farm out on Clay Creek.

Postmaster Tate and Mr. Frank Jones went out into Tennessee last week to purchase some mules.

Mr. Logan Campbell had to suspend work for a few days on account of having the mumps.

Mr. Frank and Henly Wimpy went down to Atlanta this week to buy them a pair of mules each.

The Trammell girl, whose neck was recently cut by Mrs. W. J. Burt in this county, is getting well.

Another new lot of stationery just received. Drop in and see us when wanting any work done.

Mr. Maxwell, after an absence of about a couple of weeks in North Carolina, returned last Thursday.

Mr. Henry Johnson, a farmer of this county, has moved to Gainesville to try to better his condition.

Our out of town subscribers are requested to examine the dates on their papers and renew as fast as their subscriptions expire.

Do you want your home merchants to sell you goods cheap? If so trade with them and make prompt payments like you do those in Gainesville.

Mr. Boono Crawford, a brother of Mrs. H. D. Gurley and Mr. Bruce Crawford, of Dahlonega, was wedded a few days ago to a Miss Gilling of Fannin county.

The "scent" of that two gallon jug of "mountain dew" brought in Saturday made several red, pleasant faces and cold water to drink well the next morning.

Mrs. W. J. Burt came in last week and employed Col. W. A. Charters to bring a divorce suit against her husband, and to look after other legal matters for her.

A box supper will be given at Lower Oane Creek school house next Saturday night, the proceeds of which will be used for the purchase of a bell for the school house.

The law requires photographers, dealers in pistols and pistol cartridges, cigarettes, etc., to register with the ordinary on the first day of January. Did you do it?

Nez Stephens, col., and his sister, Ida, had an old time quarrel Friday night and Nez talked like he wanted to kill Ida, but reconsidered the matter and both are alive today.

Mr. Goy Prater, who has been residing in White county, paid his parents a visit here last week, accompanied by his wife. Mr. Prater has gone to Atlanta to accept a position offered him.

Mrs. E. W. Strickland will move her military store into the old Matthews drug store, in the Hall's Villa building, where she will be glad to meet her old customers as well as new ones.

Awhile before Christmas some parties out in the country, sent off to North Carolina for something stronger than water to drink during the holidays, but at last accounts it hadn't been received. When it does come we guess it will not be thrown away and will taste just as well as if it had been used on the 25th of December.

Read the many legal notices in this issue.

We have been visited by another cold wave this week.

Tate, Anderson and Jones leave today with a drove of mules.

Dot Anderson was acquitted here last Tuesday by Com. Baker, charged with blockading.

Mr. and Mrs. Sovey returned last week after a few weeks visit north and are located at Auraria.

Mr. Thomas Bay was also fined one and cost this week for the little fracas he had with Mr. Hughes Moore Christmas day.

The house and acre lot sold by Sherid Davis Tuesday, belonging to Robert Patton, was purchased by Geo. W. Walker, Jr.

One day last week Jeff Ward was hurt pretty badly for awhile by cutting a tree down and a limb striking him in the face.

The Nugget is not only read by the people of Lumpkin county, but visits 180 post offices in the United States and Territories.

FOR SALE.—Two yoke young cattle and one span of coming spring three-year-old mules. Apply to Miller Davis, Two Km.

Mr. John Hatfield has also rented the Evans house above merchant Will Jones and is running a larger boarding house than ever.

Mr. J. B. Duckett, residing near Porter Springs, has been declining in health for some time and is now confined to his bed unable to get up.

For Rent by B. R. Meaders & Sons a store room on public square; one room dwelling at edge of town; one two room house near square.

Mr. Thos. S. Dunwoody of Somerset, O., in renewing his subscription to the Nugget last week adds: "Can't keep house without it."

Thanks to you, gentlemen, for the renewals you are sending in. If we don't please you by giving an account of what is going on in this section, we will be found trying.

The report of good wages in Alabama is causing several of our citizens to leave for that section. Better stay where you are. Low wages and good health is far better than big wages and bad health.

We are requested to say that all persons indebted to the firm of Tate Littlefield & Co., are notified to come forward and settle at once else their accounts will be found in the hands of an officer for collection.

The public school commenced again last Tuesday, after the children have had ample time to enjoy the holidays, with a good attendance. All appearing to be glad to meet together as schoolmates again.

We are glad to learn that Prof. A. W. Cain, a former citizen of Lumpkin county and a graduate of the N. G. A. College, is receiving $80 per month for teaching school at Grapeland, Texas, during the entire scholastic year.

Mr. J. W. Burt has been cited to appear at the next term of Lumpkin Superior court, charged with contempt, for tearing up a grand jury summons sent out for his daughter at the last term of the court, and not allowing her to come.

Last Monday night the city council for the new year met and organized by electing Prof. J. W. Boyd, mayor pro tem, and Mr. W. J. Worley secretary, the latter salary being the same as last year, and adjourned over until last night, when J. V. Harbison was re-elected marshal, and W. P. Price, Jr., treasurer. The committee appointed are as follows: Street Com: Strickland, Moore, Jones. Sanitary: Drs. Whelchel, Jones, Head and Marshal Harbison. Finance: McGee, Price, Royd. Night watchman: John Adams, at a salary of $20 per month, who is authorized to make arrests.

The college doors were swung open last Tuesday for the reception of the many cadets to enter again. The assembling of the students again caused bright smiles and happy faces among them all—teachers included.

A team of Moore Bros. ran away with a wagon last Thursday below the public square to the fork of the road above the Mahow place, where the horses ran up against a tree and couldn't get any farther. No damage.

Grumbling Billie of the Signal, not being able to get any one to pay attention to his editorials about the city council, getting the program last week by chattering on a communication, but it had no more effect than the editorials.

A mail route from this place to Cleveland, in White county, is needed by the way of Walnut post office at Mr. Jack Ashes. Let the people at both places and along the line make an effort in this direction and see if they can't succeed.

State Commissioner Lindsey has fixed the days to pay the pensioners of each county, and the time for the 79 in Lumpkin is February 25. Union and White the same date. Those of Dawson will get theirs the 16th of February and Hall the 19.

Dennis Walker of Auraria district, was arrested by the sheriff one day last week, who made bond charged with the offense of riot, said to be connected with the row at Auraria during the primary when a man got his skull crushed with a rock.

Mr. Carl Crawford, one among the nicest young men who attended College here last year, came over from Blue Ridge this week after his trunk and returned home to go into the mercantile business. Carl looked quite sad before he departed, as if there was some one behind he hated to leave.

Your attention is called to the ad. of W. P. Price, Jr., to be found on the first page. Mr. Price has one of the most complete stocks of general merchandise in Dahlonega. Besides being agent for the Queen Quality shoe he keeps a large stock of other shoes of various qualities and prices.

The board of education of Lumpkin county held its first meeting for the new year last Tuesday and fixed the teachers salaries the same as last year—$20, $25 and $30 per month. The board authorized Dewey school to open with Rev. J. J. Shes as teacher, which will make about 30 schools in the county this year.

Eight day alarm clock $2.18, regular price $2.50. Two hoop buckets 15c; our former price was 18c. The best stock powders and remedies ever sold in Dahlonega. Only 2 pair of double blankets left, only 80c; other 65c. Only have three 100-calico scrap bolts left. A few nice capes at a bargain. B. R. MEADERS & SONS.

Saturday at Gainesville, the mail hack was so crowded with students that Rev. Mr. Gunn of Atlanta, who was also coming to Dahlonega, got a private conveyance and came on, reaching here an hour earlier than the mail. This shows that we could get our mail much earlier if the stage was not loaded down with passengers.

It will be seen that Postmaster Farrow at Gainesville, keeps a watchful eye on both ends of the Gainesville and Dahlonega mail line and does all he can to relieve us of some of the trouble we have. What caused us to make the remark we did last week was owing to the fact that the Constitution failed to come through on the 26th, 27th and 30th. The latter date the stage came in just a little after sun down. Although the stage driver frequently reports the train behind, (especially when the hack is loaded down with passengers) we never missed our papers so often during the short space of time before and have not since. This why we said what we did, Colonel.

The ground is covered with a light snow this morning.

Quite a number of new students have entered college this week.

The state treasurer says he will have the money for school teachers next week.

Old Uncle Jimmie McMillon, one of the oldest negroes in Lumpkin county, died Tuesday night and was buried at the expense of the county. His wife is blind, also expected to die at any time.

John Fields, who used his knife pretty freely on Billie Hester awhile before Christmas, was arrested one day last week by Sheriff Davis and caused to give a bond of $200. John had been sleeping on a feather bed out in the woods but the sheriff caught him at home early in the morning when he was not thinking about it.

Mechanics have been engaged for several days repairing the old Simmons buildings. Mr. John H. Moore moved into one of them last week and as soon as the work is completed he will keep his business and spreading out. One cause of his prosperity is that he spends some money for printer's ink and invites the people in to see him.

Mr. Lee Wild, who has been absent at his home in Webster, N. C., returned last week, accompanied by his brother, Mr. J. J. Wild, who paid the Nugget a pleasant visit on Saturday morning last. Both are interested in the Cavender's Creek mine, and will likely spend a good deal of their time in the neighborhood of this celebrated property. Such perfect gentlemen as these are always welcome in our midst.

At the solicitation of the members of the Baptist church here Rev. Mr. Gunn of Atlanta, came up and preached to them both Sunday and Sunday night. After the eleven o'clock services Sunday Mr. Gunn was unanimously elected as pastor of the church for the present year, who took his departure the following day with an understanding that he would let them know in a few days whether he would accept or not.

Dr. C. H. Jones, Col. O. J. Lilly and Mr. T. E. Jackson retired as members of the city council of Dahlonega last Monday evening and all the citizens, except one or two sore heads, are perfectly satisfied with their official acts. They, together with the mayor and other members of the body, have done all that possibly could be for the interest of the town and its taxpayers. The new members that fill their places, are: Messrs. W. P. Price, Jr., E. S. Strickland and Geo. H. Moore. They will do likewise, otherwise they would not have been supported.

Mr. Samuel White of Rock River, W. Va., was in the city last week. Mr. White left Auraria county more than twenty years ago. Two or three years thereafter he returned and married and went back to the west. His wife died about three years ago, and he is back now to wed Miss Laura Cavender, a daughter of Mrs. G. W. Cayender of Union county, an old acquaintance of his. The gentleman has been very fortunate since residing in the west. He is a stock raiser and says he has 150 and sometimes as high as 400 mares on his farm. Coal is not so valuable there as in this country. He has a mine and the railroads won't ship it for him on account of owning mines themselves. Before each winter he has enough coal taken from his vein to do him through the season and it is not touched any more until the next.

Mail contractors get more for their services in Wyoming than in Georgia. He has a route of 40 miles. The roads are good and it can be carried with much more ease than the mail from Gainesville to Dahlonega, and he receives over $1,500 for it. While the Gainesville mail is pretended to be carried for six or seven hundred dollars a year.

Mining Notes.

The president of the Consolidated Co. is expected here today.

Both the Hager and old Birch boats are moving on time, giving good results.

Nothing is being done at Turkey Hill. Waiting for some repairs to be made on pump.

An interesting article concerning the Georgia mines will be found on the 4th page of this issue.

Messrs. Sovey, Tregent and Bruce are moving on quietly with their mining operations down at the Barlow.

About three miles of the Briar Patch ditch is already cut, two on the upper end and one on the lower end.

Mr. Ashley is adding some more machinery to his dredge boat in Dawson county, making an effort to have it collect the gold more satisfactorily.

The Benning mine is still running, but the company is doing nothing on the Standard property—waiting for some of the officials to come down from the north.

On account of the unfavorable weather the air compressor for the copper mine in this county didn't arrive until last Friday. They commenced at once to install it and likely by this time it is in working order, which will enable them to sink the shaft much faster than by hand drilling.

We are informed that the work of cutting the Briar Patch ditch on the lower end is still progressing and quite likely a much larger force will be added in a short time. We are anxious to see this canal completed. It runs through an undeveloped section of Lumpkin rich gold fields and to a mine which is known to be vastly rich by every resident of this county knowing anything about mining.

Messrs. Asbury and Wild commenced cutting the Cavender's Creek ditch last Monday as they intended, and the work will be pushed forward as rapidly as the weather will admit. As stated in last week's Nugget, they have until June to complete it, but want to get the canal done as quick as possible so the owners of the mine can go ahead with their work, for Cavender's Creek mine is like all others not having sufficient water to operate it, worthless, but with this ditch and the mine properly managed the company will make good money.

Work at Crown Mountain moves steadily on with good prospects, and the stockholders of this company need not have any fears of ultimate results, provided the mine is run twelve months in the year. Of course with the present insufficient power during the dry seasons this can not be done. Right at a time when the days were long and the weather most favorable the plant had to be closed down. But we are glad to state that the company is preparing to overcome this big obstacle by building a dam at the Gorge, several miles lower down on the Chestatee river than the first one, which will furnish ample power to run this magnificent plant all the year round.

The clean up down at the Lockhart last week by Mr. Maxwell was again very satisfactory. Under new arrangements the ore will be handled much more cheaper now than heretofore. The tunnel from which the ore is being taken is about 400 feet long. Up to this time the ore was rolled from the vein out in wheelbarrows to the mouth of the tunnel, and from there to the mill was hauled by a wagon. A track has been constructed from the mill to the end of the tunnel and the ore is pushed out and to the mill now in hand cars and dumped convenient to the mill at a very nominal cost, and later on ten stamps of the mill will run both day and night. We give these facts simply to show how cheap a mine can be run by one who understands it. The night shift commenced this week.

Letter From Col. Farrow.

POST OFFICE, GAINESVILLE, GA., Jan. 8, 1908.

EDITOR NUGGET: In last week's issue you allude pleasantly, to the failure of the Atlanta Constitution to come through to Dahlonega the same day of this issue (which occurred twice last week) and you suggest that it possibly occurred by reason of the postmaster, himself, being out on a Christmas hunt up at the Queen of the Mountains. It is not often that the "NUGGET" falls into error, but it is in error this time. We fully concede that it is a great misfortune for any community to be deprived of the Constitution for twenty-four hours after it is due and when that happens two days in succession trouble may always be expected. But in this case it was not the fault of the worthy young men in this office, but the fault of the Southern railway. The train from Atlanta, is due here at 10:37, a. m., and the schedule says the mail for Dahlonega must leave here as soon as possible after that train comes, and must get off any how by 11 o'clock—not later than 11 a. m. That is the schedule. What are the facts? On the above named days, Dec 29th and 27th, the trains were badly behind—on 29th, one hour and twenty minutes, and on 27th, one hour and thirteen minutes—and this office does not feel at liberty to hold the carrier quite so long.

I have found it necessary to hold back the mail carrier on that line more than half the time recently, in order to get the mail that comes up at that train from Atlanta. There are six or eight other trains that bring mail to the city during the day and night but it is important to wait for that mail train, because it brings the morning papers from Atlanta, Macon and Montgomery. I appreciate the anxiety of the people of Dahlonega to get the morning Constitution the same day it comes out; and, as above stated, I often hold back the carrier on the Dahlonega route in order to get that mail off. If I know the train is approaching and will arrive within thirty or forty minutes of schedule time I delay the mail carrier so as to get it and send it on. If the train is two or three behind I permit the carrier to depart with out it. It would be unjust to detain the carrier too long and throw him in the night getting to Dahlonega. I have found the officials of the Southern railway depot very pleasant and accommodating in answering us over the phone as to how far behind the trains are. We have exerted ourselves in this office to speed the Dahlonega mail. And believing it proper to take this liberty, I have reported to the department the manner in which I have assumed the responsibility of disregarding the schedule in order to promote the service and have informed the department that I shall continue to do so unless otherwise instructed, and thus far, no instructions touching the matter have been received. Your readers, and all the good people of Dahlonega, may rest assured that everything will be done in this office that is possible to promote the service; and when the morning papers fail to come you may know that the fault rests on the Southern railway and not on the highly esteemed young men of this office. Respectfully,

HENRY P. FARROW, P. M.

The Georgia Gold Fields.

The following letter written by Mr. James W. Green of Atlanta, Ga., gives the facts concerning the Georgia gold mines in a nut shell as follows:

"I noticed an article in yesterday's News relative to the Mexican gold fields and the inviting prospects offered Georgia capital. While knowing nothing of the Mexican territory, I am acquainted with the western gold fields, having spent the past five years in that territory, mining in a practical way. After an investigation for the past three months on the southern gold belt, from Alabama to Virginia, I am prepared to say that nowhere in the west is offered a better field for mining investment than our own state, Georgia, offers her citizens today.

My investigations have brought me to this conclusion: that the belt, as a whole, is of a sulphide character, and consequently a smelting proposition. I do not mean to say that there are not free gold ores in Georgia, but that ore is "pockety" and "streaky," which is not only true of high grade free gold ores in Georgia, but of the West, and in dealing with the subject I shall speak entirely of the sulphide ores—the smelting ores. I have seen in Georgia numbers of true fissure veins. I have obtained assays from the sulphide ores of Georgia of far greater value than the ores of the same character of Leadville and of Clear Creek and Gilpin counties, Colorado. The miners of Georgia knew these assay values. Yet they fail, in most instances, to place the property on a producing and paying basis. There are two reasons for their failure and they are that the ores have not been either scientifically mined or treated.

These sulphide ores at surface and practically at surface, ranging in depth from surface to 40 feet below surface, are in an oxidized condition. The values of the vein in that oxidized condition are partially free, and even in that condition, the stamp mill will not save over 40 per cent of the assay value, for the reason that while the gold is apparently free, that it can be seen with the naked eye in the pan, it is not free, for it is covered with a transparent film of oxidized iron which prevents amalgamation with the quicksilver on the copper plates of a stamp mill, and only that portion of the gold amalgamates which comes in direct contact with the stamps, crushing the film and exposing ragged edges of free gold, which the quicksilver catches, and should that ragged edge not come in contact with the quicksilver, but the edge which is still covered with the film, that gold passes over the plate and into the tailings and is lost.

While this ore is in that condition, an oxidized one, at surface, the further the ore is removed by sinking, from atmospheric action, the less even partially free gold is seen in the pan, and when the sinking is carried beyond the atmospheric influences and the action of the surface waters, we find the ore in a pure sulphide character and no portion of the assay value can be saved on the copper plates—the stamp mill process—the one entirely used in the past in Georgia. I have visited several properties where the ore, as exposed, is a sulphide ore and find them trying to save the values, as shown by their assays, with a stamp mill. These sulphide ores are a smelting ore, pure and simple. No other process will save them. They have to be roasted and fluxed.

Again the Georgia miner has, with his stamp mill, in the treatment of the oxidized portion of the vein, made the mistake in thinking that all matter between the walls of a vein was ore bearing, and has put through his mill all vein matter, regardless of that portion of the vein which was carrying the values and that portion of the vein which is barren. He has made no effort to sort the waste from the ore. In some instances he has even extended his operations into the walls from 2 to 3 feet, thus reducing the percent per ton, which he should save of an oxidized ore on the copper plates.

He has again reduced that percent by presuming that the vein was ore-bearing as far as he could trace it, and he has proceeded to treat in his stamp mill all of the vein as far he could trace same. He has made no effort to ascertain the extent in length of his ore shoot, for it is an admitted fact that a vein is not ore-bearing in its entire length, as far as opened, but that on the contrary, some portions of the vein, along its course from one point to another, will be ore-bearing; and then will come in a barren portion and remain so for some distance, vary in each particular case, and then again the ore will come in.

There is more feet of development work in shafts, tunnels and drifts on Mineral Hill, in the Cripple Creek district, from which as yet there has never been shipped a carload of ore, than there is in the entire southern belt from Alabama to Virginia.

Let the Georgia miner spend more money in development and less in stamp mills, and other processes, and after development ship his ore to his smelter, here at your gates, and Georgia will take her place among the best of the gold producing states of this country."

Lemon Juice Will Prevent Typhoid.

New York, Dec. 31.—Dr. Ernest G. Ledele president of the health department, referring to the discovery said to have been made recently in England that lemon juice would kill typhoid germs in water and to have been proved by experiments in Chicago, says he knows these experiments to have been tried often before and that many physicians treat their typhoid patients with lemon juice.

"I haven't made experiments myself but I am sure that lemon juice in water will kill germs if enough is used. Orange juice will do the same thing, and, in fact, we have been feeding patients that right along. There is nothing new in this discovery of lemon juice. It takes more orange juice than lemon juice, because the former has not so much citric acid in it and yet it is powerful neutralizer. There is no doubt that acid will kill typhoid germs.

There was a unique and altogether pleasing affair given at the Quillion homestead in the upper part of Hall county Christmas by the Quillion boys, who are among the largest land-owners in this county. They gave an old fashion dinner to their tenants, numbering 120. There were 175 present by actual count, including, of course, the tenants' wives and children, and the occasion was a happy one. On long tables out in the yard was spread the sumptuous repast. At one long table were gathered the white tenants, and at the other the negroes. Gathered around the table were tenants who had seen service on the Quillion place for as much as 22 years.—News.

A Tennessee judge is said to have recently performed a marriage ceremony in the following unique manner: "Wilt thou take her for though pard, for better or worse, to have, to hold, to fondly guard till hauled off in a hearse? Wilt thou let her have her way, consult her many wishes, make the fires every day and help her wash the dishes? Wilt thou comfort and support her father and mother. Aunt Jemima, Uncle John, three sisters and a brother?" His face grew pale and blank, it was too late to jilt; as to the floor he sank, he meekly said, "I wilt."

Girls, if you desire to know whether or not you are physically perfect, ascertain if your whole length is seven times that of your head; ten times that of your face; nineteen times the length of your hands and six or seven times the length of your foot. These are the measurements a physically perfect woman must come up to.

In Egypt nets are spread along the coast, in which hundreds of thousands of the birds which come from Europe, all worn out from the long flight across the ocean, are caught, slaughtered and sold for two cents apiece.

Some women grow weary trying to look young, but they do not tire themselves half as much as they tire others.

Thirty Days Was My Life's Limit. Agony From Inherited Heart Disease. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Cured Me.

One person in every four has a weak heart. Unless promptly treated a weak heart will easily become a diseased heart. A little extra strain from any cause is sufficient to bring on this deadly ailment, the most common cause of sudden death. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will tone up the heart's action, enrich the blood and improve the circulation.

"My trouble began with catarrh and I have always supposed it caused the trouble I have experienced with my heart. I had the usual symptoms of sleeplessness, lost appetite, constipation, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath and pain around the heart and under left arm. My mother suffered in the same way and I suppose mine was an inherited tendency. At one time I was in agony. I suffered so severely and became so weak that my doctors said I could not live thirty days. At this time I had not slept over two hours a night on account of nervousness. The least exercise such as walking about, would bring on palpitation and fluttering of the heart so severe that I would have to give up everything and rest. My heart and liver pills cured me of constipation and heart symptoms disappeared under the influence of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. I am in better health than I have been in twelve years and I thank Dr. Miles' Remedies for it. I think they are the grandest remedies on earth and I am heartily recommending them to my friends."—MRS. Told Truth Accidentally.

A young woman in New York who had always been to private landresses insisted upon having one in the metropolis, difficult as this operation was. She accomplished a feat, as she supposed, when she obtained one with a fine address, cleanly appearance, and found also that she was "careful" in a wealthy physician's house in the Fifties. Two weeks elapsed on one occasion before she heard of her clothing, and she was unusually anxious to gather in her belongings. Going to the house where this woman was employed, she found that she could get her wash gowns and underclothes. "But where are my stocks and ties and shirt waists?" she demanded. "Oh," replied the private landress naively, "they haven't got back from the Chinaman's yet." Now that girl hunts for a "regular laundry" and doesn't boast. —New York Press.

Woman.

The Dublin Courier-Dispatch, discussing the case of the Iowa minister who quit his calling rather than live with his wife, who persisted in making his life miserable, is moved to exclaim: "A good woman is the noblest handiwork of God; a bad one is the emissary of the devil. One was put into this world for the purpose of assuaging sorrow, comforting the suffering, acting as a companion to the lonely, administering to the wants of the needy and leading the erring back to the path of rectitude and right living. The mission of the other is to allure men to destruction, death and hell, to make his life miserable, to debauch his character, narrow his mind, dull his sensibilities, thwart his ambition and destroy his peace, happiness and home."

The worst blizzard known for years visited the northwest last week.

Negroes have stolen 1,000 bodies from the Indianapolis cemeteries in the last two years.

Dr. Griffith of Atlanta, was fined $25.75 for not reporting a case of small pox in that city known to him.

Education in The Country.

[BY HENRY WOODY.]

Having taught several years in the country schools and realizing the need of many improvements both in schools and in teachers, I endeavor to write this essay on "Education in The Country."

Much of late has been said and written on this subject, but little has been done in this country compared with what might be done, if the school officials would put out their best efforts.

I believe that the consolidation of rural schools would be the best improvement for the present. For several years, in the north and west, the consolidated schools have proved most efficient. The consolidated schools are graded, and three teachers can evidently do more and better work than four can under the old system. The children who live a distance from the school are transferred to and from school in wagons or carriages, especially for the business.

Thus, the expenses are no greater (if as great) than under the old system. Of course this would not be best for some districts.

It is universally believed that compulsory education is the best, but we will not discuss this subject here.

If teachers were better and more enthusiastic in their work, no doubt we would have far better schools.

Teaching in this country seems to be a stepping-stone to a higher position; but this should not be the case. This perhaps is due, to a great extent, to the small emolument of the teacher. If teachers would better prepare themselves and go to work in earnest, they would evidently get better wages. The time is coming, and is almost at hand, when teachers will be required to prepare themselves more fully for the great work they are to do.

Teachers, let us consider the importance of the position we hold, and prepare ourselves for better work, better wages and the benefit of society and humanity.

He Made a Mistake.

The man who was soliciting for a charitable institution argued long and earnestly. He wanted a contribution of $100, says the Chicago Post. Finally the merchant reached for his check book.

"The Lord loveth the cheerful giver," quoted the solicitor with cheerful satisfaction.

"Does He?" asked the merchant, hesitating.

"You'll find it in the Bible," asserted the solicitor.

The merchant put back his check book.

"I was about to give you $100," he explained, "but I couldn't possibly do that cheerfully. Doubtless it would be more pleasing in the eyes of the Lord if I kept down to a point where I can be cheerful."

Thereupon he handed a $5 bill to the solicitor and smiled pleasantly.

Some Western papers make it a point not to mention the death of a man who is so stingy that he don't take his county paper. They figure that he has been dead all the while and just walked around to save funeral expenses.—Cedar Standard.

It is said that a tumor weighing 120 pounds was removed from a patient at Charleston, Ill., recently.

Oil has been discovered near Anniston, Ala.

It is estimated that 20,000 persons are suffering at Chicago because of the coal famine.

Mamie Dechrist, the queen of diamonds, goes to the penitentiary from Savannah for two years.

The total cost of the uniforms of Gov. Terrell's colonels will be $20,600. Pretty expensive display.

In Alabama recently the daughter of a sheriff turned a prisoner out of jail and eloped with him.

A professional safe blower was killed by a policeman in Atlanta last week while preparing to blow open a safe.

A woman in Arizona, who pretended that she wanted a husband, has been arrested for using the mails for fraudulent purposes.

A farmer in Emanuel county came to the front last week with a 578 pound hog. A hog of this kind is a mighty nice thing to have in a family.

The laying of the street car track at Gainesville is progressing as rapidly as the weather will admit, and the cars will be running in the near future.

Henry Phipps last week contributed $300,000 for the establishment of an institution in Philadelphia for the treatment and study of consumption.

The school census of Georgia will be estimated this year from the United States census, taking all the children between the age of 6 and 16. If any county is dissatisfied by the report after it is furnished the board, provisions will be made for taking a special census with such county or district dissatisfied.

A pathetic mining camp story comes out from the Black Hills of South Dakota, says the Savannah News. For seventeen years David Thompson had been prospecting in the hills for gold, without ever having made a strike that amounted anything. A few days ago, however, he uncovered a fairly rich vein of quartz, said to be twelve feet wide, in which chunks of free gold can be seen in the white rock. So great was Thompson's joy over his discovery that he ruptured a blood vessel in his brain and died immediately.

We notice that 600 persons attended a dinner at Berlin recently and feasted on horse flesh, which was given for the purpose of demonstrating the nourishing and palatable qualities of horse meat, thereby causing increased consumption of the meat and a ready market for old horses. This would prevent owners from working the poor animals to death, as well-fed specimens would bring good prices. We don't suppose these horses were as poor as the ones the confederate soldiers had to eat during the war.

T. Thomas Fortune, the negro editor sent by President Roosevelt to investigate conditions in Hawaii has reported that the islands can at once supply work for ten thousand American negroes. If T. Thomas and others like him will be among the first to emigrate, the United States would soon be without any negro problem to settle. It is such negroes as he who create the negro problem in this country. Before a few negroes became possessed of the fool idea that they were the equal of the whites, there was no negro problem in this country, and if this class will move out the vexed problem will disappear.—Ex.

William Lawrence died in Union county last Friday aged 91.

On Sunday a blizzard swept over the northwest causing much suffering.

The cold wave this week shortened the lives of some of our citizens chickens.

Three boarding houses were burned at Young Harris, Ga., Sunday night. The college barely escaped.

In New York a woman has been given a divorce because her husband didn't kiss her when left the house.

A boy dropped a match into a vat of oil at London, Ontario, the other day, resulting in a loss of $300,000.

A fourteen-year-old negro tried to steal a locomotive in Atlanta last week, but was arrested before he succeeded.

Over half a million dollars were paid into the state treasury last week, enabling the school teachers and others to receive their money.

The president has given Boston Massachusetts a negro official, in the person of W. H. Lewis, who is appointed assistant U. S. Attorney.

The charges of corruption against the police board of Atlanta are being investigated, and several sensational matters are coming to light.

The president of the Engineering and Mining Journal of New York, has purchased the Semi-Monthly Pacific Coast Journal of San Francisco, Cal.

Whenever it comes to a showdown between the negro and the white man, President Roosevelt always leans to the colored side of the question, remarks the Columbus Sun.

It seems that certain women in Atlanta have been selling liquor under United States licenses and now under the direction of the Comptroller General they will have to pay the state $240 each.

Representative Griffith of Indiana, has introduced a bill in congress to limit fortunes in the United States to $10,000,000. He thinks all above that is a public nuisance. This won't effect us.

It was reported a few days ago that the engineering corps of A. K. & N. Y., engaged in surveying the proposed change in the road down Toccoa river had met with obstacles so great that it was questionable whether they would be able to overcome them. The road it is said would in some places be even worse than the present route down Hiwassee river.—Post.

Attorney General J. C. Hart has handed down his opinion to governor J. M. Terrell, stating that he thought it legal for a county school commissioner to borrow money to pay the salary of teachers in his county. By this opinion the school teachers of the state will be greatly accommodated. The money will be borrowed by the county school commissioner, who will pledge the scrips as security.

John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is going to build in New York a magnificent club house for his Sunday-school class. The establishment is to cost $500,000, and will be complete in every detail as a club house. It will have kitchen, dining room, reading rooms, smoking rooms, etc., besides bed rooms for several hundred persons. The club dues will be nominal, about $2 a year, and room rent will be from $2.50 to $5 a week.

In Centralia, Ill., there is a young woman of the name of Dora Meek who on Sept. 26, last, had a quarrel with her sweetheart and almost at once dropped off into a sleep from which she has not yet awakened. Her sleep has lasted 100 days, despite the efforts of physicians and hypnotists to awaken her. The case is puzzling to scientists. It should be a warning to girls not to quarrel with their sweethearts.—Savannah News.

Last Monday the thermometer registered at two degrees below zero in Chicago and it is said that people froze to death because coal is short.

Jake Howell, who has been in the employ of the Union Store Co. here for eight months, leaves for his home at Dalton today, and will go from there to Alabama.

The New York Herald has gone back on Roosevelt. Takes the name of the president from its mast head and declares that he has made a grievous mistake in putting the negro over the white man.

Commissioner Merrett has notified the county school commissioners that they may defer making a five years contract for school books until after the legislature meets, as it may make some changes in the law.

There were several applications made to the ordinary of this county by persons who wished to occupy road commissioners in certain districts but Judge Huff paid no attention to them. This was done in a few instances some time ago by parties who had some personal scheme in view and it generally cost the county a whole lot of useless money.

It having been intimated by Little Billie Signal in his communication last week that the members of the city council raised every body's taxes except their own, we took occasion to examine the tax digest of last year, although we didn't believe a word of it, and found that every councilman's taxes had been raised but one. This way of shooting off hand at our city officials by the Signal is unjust and the writer should be ashamed of writing and publishing such falsehoods.

The New York Court of Appeals some time ago ruled that a young woman had no redress at law against a firm that was using her portrait for advertising purposes without her consent. The patent Office the other day refused a copyright to a firm that wanted to use the name of President Roosevelt as a trade mark. Representative Fitzgerald has introduced into Congress a bill making it illegal for any person or firm engaged in trade to make use of the name or portrait of any living person for business purposes without first having obtained his or her consent in writing. This bill in operation would reduce the number of brands of five-cent cigars on the market.—Savannah News.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published. No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformant, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how mother was cured. I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have cured Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I want to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this week and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are weary and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you my experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, any way, and prove for yourself these claims I make. Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism, no matter where located, send me their address, and I will mail them a copy of this work. My address is VICTOR E. RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

Loss of Flesh

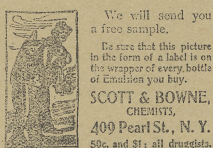

When you can't eat breakfast, take Scott's Emulsion. When you can't eat bread and butter, take Scott's Emulsion. When you have been living on a milk diet and want something a little more nourishing, take Scott's Emulsion.

To get fat you must eat fat. Scott's Emulsion is a great fattener, a great strength giver.

Those who have lost flesh want to increase all body tissues, not only fat. Scott's Emulsion increases them all, bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

For invalids, for convalescents, for consumptives, for weak children, for all who need flesh, Scott's Emulsion is a rich and comfortable food, and a natural tonic.

Scott's Emulsion for bone, flesh, blood and nerve.

SODDY, TENN., Jan. 9, 1903. MR. EDITOR:

As I promised to write to several of the boys how times were here, one letter through the NUGGET will post them all.

There is plenty of work here and wages are from $1.47 to $2.50 in the bank. Outside work from $1.15 to $1.25, except foreman's. Their wages range from $1.25 to $2.50. I will start a crowd on the 15th on grade work at the outside prices given. They pay me $2.50 per day. I have had charge of bottom work up to this time, that is shooting roadways large enough for mules where the coal is small. They pay machine runners $1.80 per day, and gobbers or muckers $1.47 per day.

It costs a right smart to live here. Outside of a living house rent is high, doctor 50 cents, laborers Union $1.00 per month. So friends, you can consider for yourselves.

GAINESVILLE, GA., Jan. 5, 1903.

MR. EDITOR:

Mr. Will Wehont of Davis' district visited the Gainesville Cotton Mill and he was so excited as he entered the door that he thought he was going to preaching and pulled his hat off, as he was viewing the machinery with his hat under one arm and his shoes and socks under the other. The worst trouble of all while in a rush when the wheels started he lost his socks, and while searching for them he got turned around and did not know how to get out. He thought he had found the door, but the worst of it he was on the elevator going to the top story, and the last seen of him he was on top of the mill trying to climb down the side.

Hope Will will get back home safe to Davis' district where he can hunt rabbits.

Local News.

Mr. Will Head of this county, has moved to Gainesville.

The change of date on your paper will show that your subscription money has been received and answers as a receipt.

R. S. Deputy Collector H. O. Hopkins of Jasper, Ga., was in Dahlonega this week in the interest of the government.

Now subscribers continue to be received from persons residing elsewhere, which proves that they are concerned about this section.

On the night of the 12th inst. Mr. Geo. Gaddis of this county, lost a cow, and Green Marlow is believed to be the one that stole it. At last accounts four men were after Marlow.

The Rev. Mr. Gunn of Atlanta, has accepted his election as pastor of the Baptist church at this place and we most heartily welcome Mr. Gunn and lady to our beautiful mountain city.

Marshal Harrison had made the town such a faithful and efficient officer for two years past that the new council didn't even ask him to serve for less money than he has been receiving.

The improvement Mr. J. H. Moore is making on the Simmons buildings greatly adds to the appearance of those once eye sore houses, besides the new conveniences that are being made to both.

Squire Worley held an almost all day session of court last Friday trying a case of Miss Amanda Cain and her mother against Mr. Ben Moore. The case was decided in favor of the plaintiffs for $25.

A list of the new road overseers for this county, appointed by Judge Huff last week, will be found elsewhere in this issue. There is more honor than money in these offices and if the law is carried out they will not be idle all the time.

Mr. Wm. Rider of this county, finds cable raising a very profitable business. He informed us last week that he raised twenty-five hundred pounds from a spot of ground just a little over an acre in size, and received a cent, and a cent and a quarter for them.

The many friends of Mr. Edward Peacock, a former assayer of the Dahlonega Consolidated Co., at this place, will be glad to learn that he has recently been elected president and general manager of the Bonanza Gold Mining Development Co., of Montana, and will go from Idaho Springs to Denver, Colo., at once to assume his duties.

Mr. Lee Pitner and Mr. Pierce, a friend of his, hired a horse and buggy in Dahlonega the other day to go across the Blue Ridge on a pleasure trip. When they got away the animal refused to pull up the mountain. Mr. Pierce stopped at a relatives and Mr. Pitner footed it to town and the owner had to send after his turnout. Such is life.

Don't buy goods from your home merchants on a credit and when they ask you for their pay, cry out "high prices," and go down to Gainesville and spend the money you saved up while eating their meat and bread. This is wrong. You may succeed in it for awhile but justice will come after while and you will learn a lesson to your sorrow, maybe.

A synopsis of the report of the recent finance committee of the city of Dahlonega for 1902 will be found in another column. It is interesting reading matter for the citizens of this place and those owning real estate here. By examination you will observe that the interests of the tax payers have been closely guarded, and the financial condition of the town is in better shape than it has been for years, which reflects much credit upon the council that brought it about by good common sense management.

Sent in $2.00 and get 1900 nicely printed linen envelopes.

Mr. James C. Tate of Willow, is now located in Birmingham, Ala.

Clothes nicely cleaned and pressed by Winnie Jefferson, near Underwood's barber shop.

The weather man gave us a variety again last Sunday. Rain in the morning and sun shine and wind in the afternoon.

There will be some two or three hundred dollars more in the county treasury when Constable Walker gets all his tax fee, collected.

Mr. E. E. Crisson will soon commence the erection of his new store house out in the country. Mr. Will Ricketts has the contract.

Mrs. E. W. Strickland will now be found at her new quarters in Hall's Villa building with a full line of millinery goods to suit the season.

Mrs. W. J. Worley went down to Gainesville last week to visit one of her sick daughters, Mrs. Maud Kerr, who recently went down to that city.

Mr. E. S. Copeland left last week to be gone some weeks, visiting several towns and cities in the interest of the life insurance building he represents.

Gen. Warner returned from New York last Friday where he has been on special business that will be of interest to Dahlonega and Lumpkin county.

We notice that several of the moonshiners of this county who were serving out sentences in Fulton county jail, have been released and are back at home.

Some more parties left for Alabama this week. Lumpkin county will be pretty well represented down there, for a while at least, 'till some of them get home sick.

Christmas cases are still being disposed of by Mayor Baker. Saturday last Charlie Thomas was fined one and cost for violating a town ordinance on the great holiday.

We are glad to state that Mr. Gaudier, the student from Florida, who has been sick so long, is improving, and will with the proper caution soon be in the recitation room again.

The people of Nimbleshill are wide awake on the subject of education. The public school is so largely patronized in that community that an assistant teacher has been asked for, and the board of education are now considering the matter.

Mr. Pierce, who went from this country to Missouri, fourteen years ago, after spending some time in this and Union counties, departed for home last Monday together with his mother. He talks like that state is a great country and nothing like it.

Mr. John Adams, who was appointed night watchman last week, decided that it was too severe for him unless he was in better health, and he resigned. Mr. Lafayette Carter was appointed temporarily by Mayor Baker until the council meets.

The people of Dahlonega, Lumpkin county and every body else who know Mr. R. J. Swain, are glad that Judge Kimsey has re-appointed him court stenographer of this circuit for one year, hoping that the Judge will continue him when the 42 months expire.

J. P. Croun of this county, was bound over and carried to Atlanta last Sunday charged with illicit distilling. John Howell was also carried along. The U. S. grand jury returned a true bill against him for the same offense and he was given a free ride to Atlanta.

Go to J. M. Brooksher & Co. for your dry goods, notions, outings, scrap rolls. In fact every thing kept in a general store. All new and fresh, at the lowest price ever known for cash. At Brooksher stand.

A. W. ANDERSON,
Manager.

The cold wave last week gave the Signal a slight touch of the group and it didn't get out until Friday.

While others sell kerosene oil at 25 cents per gallon in Dahlonega, you can get it at J. F. Moore & Co's for 22 cents.

For Rent by B. R. Meaders & Sons a store room on public square, one 5 room dwelling at edge of town; one two room house near square.

Don't forget to renew your subscription to the NUGGET, for if you don't we might forget to send it out. Money causes any ones memory to be good.

Subscribers at a distant to the NUGGET will find it cheaper to secure a money order for a years subscription than to send 25 cents every three months.

By reference to our advertising columns you will find that Mr. H. H. Tower, at Anstavia, Ga., wants some wild turkeys, dead or alive. Also a lot of Indian stone relics and gold nuggets.

A dwelling house belonging to Rev. Mat. Grizzle was destroyed by fire up in Nimbleshill district a few days ago. Mr. Grizzle was moving into it and had carried one load when it caught on fire.

In fixing up your new year's resolutions don't forget to resolve to take and pay for the NUGGET, if you are not already a subscriber. Then you will live happy and prosper the whole twelve months.

Mr. James Aber Grindle was wedded to Mrs. Holeman a few nights ago in this county. The bride was the wife of William Holeman, who was killed a few months ago not far above Dahlonega.

You will find quite an interesting letter from Mr. Henry Wood, of Kyle, N. C., in this issue. When Henry left Dahlonega many years ago he was a little barefooted boy. Now he is grown and is teaching school.

T. S. Smith & Bro. wish to remind the public that they are still doing business at the same old stand, and giving all their customers good bargains as usual. Those who have not found their way to this store will find it to their interest to go up and make an investigation.

Let no one residing in Dahlonega feel discouraged. The Gainesville and Dahlonega Electric Railway line is sure to be completed unless there comes a great panic, and we have no fears of any. The wave of prosperity is moving and it is coming this way and nothing can stop its progress until it reaches us.

We are sorry to say that there are quite a number of children here idling about on the streets smoking cigarettes instead of going to school. The people are taxed to place good schools within their reach and their parents won't make them reap the benefit. Some of these days, when it is too late they will regret it.

There is a fellow in this county who does not see his children but once a week—on Sunday, although he stays at home every night. He lives five miles from Dahlonega and works down at the mines and walks back and fourth every day. When he leaves the children are not up, and when he returns they are all gone to bed.

E. E. Crisson is selling out his entire stock of dry goods at actual cost, in order to move his business to the country. About 1,000 yards of cashmere. Good silk broadcutes, flannels, worsteds, clothing and much calico. Notions and a good line of shoes. A nice line of mens' and boys' hats, and many things too tedious to mention—terms cash. Now is the time to buy first-class goods at cost. Come and see for yourself.

Very Respectfully,
E. E. CRISSON,
Clarksville Street,
Dahlonega, Ga.

City Marshal Harrison anticipates visiting Cleveland and Knoxville, Tenn., next week on business. Mr. Geo. Walker will handle the "billy" in his absence.

Mr. J. E. Wilkins, who has been doing business for Mr. E. E. Crisson, moved his family to Cherokee county yesterday, and Mr. Wilkins will accept a position in Gainesville.

Uncle Dick Dowdy's health is so bad that he is unable to come to town and a committee of physicians had to come up last week from Gainesville and examine him so he could make out his pension claim to the government as the law directs.

A few nights ago some of the negroes walked out into the Anderson settlement, through mud and rain, three miles to attend a dance and get some corn juice, and when the preacher came to preach to them at Dahlonega the weather was "too unpleasant" for them to go out and hear him, and when the time came for the contribution basket to be carried around there were not enough people present to pay for the trouble.

The North Georgia Electric Co. have already put in from 1800 to 2000 lights at Gainesville, and we are reliably informed that the demand for others is much faster than they can be supplied. But the Company has men at work accommodating the people just as fast as labor and money will do it. None of the buildings in that city were built with an eye of lighting them by electricity and the work is necessarily slower than it would be otherwise.

Deputy Marshal Grizzle informs us that the government will sell in Atlanta on the 20th, the following lots of land claimed by persons residing in Lumpkin county, to-wit: 1 lot claimed by J. B. Edwards, 3 by John Wehmi, 1 by Fles Guerrin and 2 by Rachel Guerrin. This property was some time ago sold by the government on brandy bonds and bid in by the same. Those who owned it then did not recognize the governments title and sold it to the parties above named, and now the government expects to sell it again.

Rev. D. J. Blackwell, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Dahlonega, doesn't know yet whether he will remain here for another year or not. We hope he will, for he is the clearest preacher that ever located in Dahlonega. He is kind, sociable and ever willing to help the needy and distressed, or even if he has to reach down into his pocket for money to do it. Mr. Blackwell does not want the people to "look up to him," like some of those of his profession, but on the other hand desires them to serve the Lord instead of man.

Sunday before last Juan Garsley got drunk and with his Winchester painted the town red at Gardistown. Both of his brothers had to leave home. One came over on this side of the mountain and the other went some where else. Juan is a desperate fellow. There are warrants against him and have been for some time but the officers seem to be afraid of him. He carries his gun constantly both day and night and won't let any one come close to him. Whether the newly elected sheriff will try to arrest him will soon be seen.

Last Saturday a jury found Salsie Wylie, a negro woman residing near Auraria, to be a fit subject for the lunatic asylum. She is a sister to the one that was sent to the asylum not many months ago, and if they don't quit taking some old negroes medicine down that way the whole family will have to go. The father, after trying a couple of doses for his head, said that it raised him clear up out of his chair. And the daughter a short while before she was tried, ran down to the river and jumped off into the water that was over her head, and when asked why she did it said that some one through the Lord told her to do it. The medicine man should have all the skin whipped off of his back.

Eggs are becoming scarce in the Dahlonega market again.

The ladies will read the Nugget. Not long ago ones husband had his paper suspended because we said something in the campaign that didn't suit him. But his wife sent in the money and it still visits her place of abode.

Mr. Jobery Thomas, an old ex-Confederate veteran of this county, was stricken with apoplexy last Sunday, and for awhile the old man was in a very dangerous condition, but we are glad to state that he is on the mend now.

Persons who are going to Alabama in search of work at higher wages from this section, doubtless are not aware that they have to pay $15.00 per month for board, from 50 to $1.00 to a physician, 75 cents for insurance besides washing. And to make any thing you will have to stay well all the time and get in every day.

We have decided that it is best not to cut too many "didos" when a young couple gets married. Once in Dahlonega we saw a whole lot of grain cast at a couple as they were leaving town and it wasn't long until the husband was sent to the asylum instead of the chain gang for stealing and the young wife had to return to her fathers home.

For the last week or ten days old Confederate veterans and widows of veterans of this county have been coming in to have their pension papers fixed up by Judge Huff. We missed the faces of some who were here last year. Death has called them to their reward. They are all growing old and feeble and in a few more years the last one will be gone to answer to the roll call above.

The thermometer registered at 12 last Monday night, showing that the cold wave was just the same as that which visited us on Christmas—registering the same at that time, as shown by Prof. Gaillard's thermometer. This wave as well as the other stopped nearly all the traveling as well as most out door work in this section. It has been colder than this some winters past but this spell was not pleasant by any means.

Some of the Southern railroad authorities recently wrote to Col. Charters here, enquiring about the coal of this county, stating that they would build a branch road to transport it if in sufficient quantities. We regret to say that enough development work has not been done to let what we have. Coal was discovered on Black Mountain last summer and some little work was done, but stopped as soon as the prospectors found that they were on a lot upon which they had no authority. The land belongs to the F. W. Hall estate.

President J. S. Stewart of the N. G. A. College, has been notified that the war department has detailed Maj. Tilson to take charge of the military department of this institution, at Dahlonega. Maj. Tilson has been to Dahlonega before and the faculty and trustees were well pleased with him. He was here when the Spanish-American war broke out and was called in to be ready to go to the front whenever ordered, and it is the last time any United States officer has been stationed here of any importance.

We are glad to state that we have had a U. S. field inspector here this week. He came in Monday and left the next morning. He had been here some years ago and was very well acquainted with our mail facilities. The gentleman spoke well of Dahlonega and its people, saying that it was a prosperous town and needed better mail service. From the way he talked he will recommend that Dahlonega receive two mails from Gainesville a day, including a Sunday mail. This will fill a long felt want and we trust that it will be established. Postmaster Tate gives it his hearty approval, and so does postmaster Farrow at Gainesville.

Mining Notes.

They are still running two shifts down at the Benning.

The mining outlook is very bright in this county for 1903.

Messrs. Wild and Asbury, the contractors, made a good showing on Cavender's Creek ditch last week. They worked about forty hands and have added more this week.

The production of gold in the United States from domestic ores during 1902 amounted to 4,243,357 troy ounces, valued at $87,710,189, as compared with 3,880,578 ounces, valued at $80,211,547 in 1901.

Mr. Maxwell and Mr. Tom McDonald are now engaged in taking out ore on the Singleton property. Mr. J. F. Moore worked this mine profitably once and we can see no reason why others can't do it. The work at the Lockhart by Mr. Maxwell is also going right ahead.

Messrs. Sovey, Trogent and Bruce are making no big display down at the Barlow, nor no racks at except what the mill causes, but they are doing profitable work all the same. They have no first, second nor third grade idle bosses. This is what it takes to run any kind of business successfully backed by a reasonable amount of good common sense judgment.

On account of the increased flow of water, work on the Gorge dam will be suspended until the weather is more favorable. The power is not needed at Crown Mountain now and it will not be necessary to resume the work until in the late spring. Then it will be commenced again and continued until completed and be ready in due time when the dry season sets in.

The people of Lumpkin county should encourage all enterprises wishing to cut canals and throw no obstacles in their way whatever. They are of vast importance to our section and every one cut opens up new mining fields. There are numbers of rich gold mining lots in this county that cannot be worked for the lack of water power. But it matters not how rich a gold mine is it is worthless without water power.

Mr. S. A. Jones, president of the Cavender's Creek Gold Mining Co., was in Dahlonega last Tuesday. The gentleman remained but a short while here until he returned to his mine, where he is planning out many things to do as soon as the weather becomes more favorable. This mine comprises hundreds of acres of valuable property which will be operated for gold as soon as the canal, now being cut, is finished.

The Crown Mountain Mill had been steadily running both day and night until the cold wave struck us Monday morning. There being too much ice on the plates to save the gold, the plant was not started until yesterday. Everything begins to present a proper appearance over that way. The ore is plentiful and good, causing its managers to have the utmost confidence in the success of the mine. Some as nice specimens as have yet been found were taken out there last week.

If the members of the Consolidated Co. wish to mine profitably they should put the water back on the Findley and Barlow mines, the best properties they possess, divide up the big 120 stamp mill down at the Hand and put the stamps at a place where they can be kept in operation continuously. There never was nor never will be any use of a 120 stamp mill down at the Hand—20 stamps would have been sufficient to crush all the ore that can be gotten out of shafts and tunnels down there. Mine where the ore can be dug out and washed down to the mill, instead of where it has to be pulled up out of shafts, then you will make money, and not before. Ore cannot be taken out of shafts alone fast enough to keep even a small mill running.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

The Young Men.

The problems of the future are to be solved by the young men of today, and those questions are of such great and vital importance that only men imbued with the ideas of a just and almighty God can successfully cope with them. Says Bird Color, who was the recent Democratic candidate for governor of New York:

The young man may have to fight position, and perhaps for existence, but in the end he is bound to win if he is persistent and never lets go. I never won anything in my life I did not fight for. The day of a passive man has gone by. That of the active, energetic man has come to stay.

Be slow to decide, but when you have once pointed your course to that which you believe to be right let nothing turn you aside. When you say "yes" to that which your judgment tells you to be best, do not be content merely with the expression of approval, but strive to make your opinion prevail. When you say "no" to that which your conscience and mind teach you to be wrong, never rest until you are successful, or your last resource is exhausted in defeat.

You cannot always be right, but you can always try to be. Never be deterred from doing the right thing from the fear of making enemies. A man's reputation depends just as much upon the baseness of his enemies as the good qualities of his friends. Never promise anything you cannot fulfill, and in speaking remember that few words, coming from a sincere heart, are of more moment to the world than a sophistical oration or ponderous editorial, no matter how great or able one may be. Mean what you say, and say what you mean; in other words, leave the stamp of a man made in God's image upon everything with which you have to do.—Athens Banner

Found Dead Sweetheart's Picture.

Of the 7,000 portraits of Civil War soldiers in the Postoffice Department in 1895 only about 700 are left. The collection was a part of the many thousands of portraits sent by soldiers from the different camps of the Union army to their homes in all parts of the United States, and kept in Postoffice Museum because, for one reason or another, impossible to find those to whom they were addressed. But gradually, in the ensuing thirty-seven years, the portraits were identified by relatives and friends and taken away.

Only the other day one of the visitors to the Museum, a little woman, faded and worn was overcome by emotion while looking at the many pictures. She was tenderly cared for, and when revived merely pointed to one of the pictures in the collection. It was handed to her and she wept over the faded portrait of a youthful soldier in the Union blue.

"He was my sweetheart, and we were to have been married when he returned from the war," she said. "I never saw him again, for he was killed in the Wilderness and buried in an unmarked grave."

She was given the portrait and left the Museum clasping it tightly, her faded eyes smiling through her tears.—Philadelphia Record.

Try It.

It is said that by giving a hog salt before killing is a safe and sure method for preserving meat whether the weather is enough or not. The old method of covering meat with salt is expensive and very unsatisfactory. Give your hogs a hand full of salt in meal or slop for several days before killing, then use just half as much salt you have heretofore been using, and your meat will be perfectly safe. By giving the salt internally it reaches the bones better than by external applications, hence preserving meat, large or small, is no longer to be dreaded. —Marietta Journal.

Got Mad.

Once upon a time a man got mad at the editor and stopped his paper. The next week he sold his corn for four cents below the market price. Then his property was sold for taxes because he didn't read the sheriff's sales. He was arrested and fined $8 for going hunting on Sunday simply because he didn't know it was Sunday, and paid $200 for a lot of forged notes that had been advertised four weeks and the public cautioned not to negotiate them. He then paid a big American with a foot like a forge hammer to kick him all the way to the newspaper office, where he paid four years in advance and made the editor sign an agreement to knock him down and rob him if he ever ordered his paper stopped again.

Attention Young Men.

The state has established at Dahlonega the best educational plant in North Georgia. Tuition free and board is only $8 per month in the Dormitory. One Hundred Dollars will cover actual cost of college expenses for 9 months. A diploma from this state College is a high honor and stands for work, for scholarship, for character. The state wants to help you help yourself. An investment in brain power pays the best dividends. Will you not accept the state's offer?

The college holds the state championship in oratory. For particulars as to course of study, expense equipment, etc., write to Jos. S. Stewart, President Dahlonega, Ga.

The other night four men lost themselves in a burning hotel, caused by a negro porter smoking cigarettes after going to bed.

The small pox in Elberton and the county is exciting some alarm. Out of six cases in one family near the city four have died.

Deadly

Grasp of Grip Prostrated Me.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Built Up My

Shattered Nerves and Gave Me an Appetite.

Of the millions of people, who today suffer from nervous or heart weakness, a large percentage trace the cause directly to deadly LaGrippe. It is a germ disease, and makes a direct attack upon the nerves, putting an extra strain upon them at the time their vitality is at its lowest ebb. If LaGrippe left you with a shattered nervous system, with loss of appetite, lack of energy, insomnia, frequent headaches and morbid tendencies, you should strengthen the weakened nerves with Dr. Miles' Nerve. It will build up all that grip has done, bring back appetite, rest and restore the nerves to their normal activity.

"I want to write this testimonial for the benefit of those who have suffered from that dreaded disease—LaGrippe. I suffered several weeks with it, and nothing I tried seemed to benefit me in any way, shape or form (I suffered almost daily) and finally my daughter recommended Dr. Miles' Nerve to me and I can truthfully say from the first day I felt better than in weeks. It gave me relief, built up my shattered nerves and gave me a splendid appetite. I cannot say too highly of it and want to say each and every one who has suffered from LaGrippe will find instant relief by getting a bottle of Dr. Miles' Nerve. Insist on having it and take no other. It is simply splendid. Hoping this will benefit some poor sufferer I remain," —Mrs. George B. Hays, Jackson, Tenn.

A Severe Cold For Three Months.

The following letter from A. J. Nusbaum, of Eastville, Ind., tells its own story: "I suffered for three months with a severe cold. A druggist prepared for me some medicine, and a physician prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I then tried FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR, and eight doses cured me."

A Chattanooga Druggist's Statement.

Robert J. Miller, proprietor of the Read House Drug Store, of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes: "There is more merit in FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR than in any other cough syrup. The calls for it multiply wonderfully and we sell more of it than all other cough syrups combined."

Leaving the bedside of his father, who had just died at Monticello, Ga., W. H. Jordan, a farmer, living near there, went into the next room and picking up a flask that he thought held brandy took a large drink. The bottle contained carbolic acid and he died in awful agony in five minutes.

The census shows that there are in the United States 2,000,000 more bachelors than spinsters. Judiciously used, this information should enable the spinsters to direct the thoughts of the bachelors to more serious matters than ping pong and theater parties, says the Chicago Chronicle.

At Chattanooga, January 14, man insensible condition George Grant, aged 35, was carried to the Erlanger hospital there that night, and the next morning at 10 o'clock he died. For Boys to Think About.

It is easier to keep out of jail than to break out, provided you begin in time.

It is easier to avoid a bad habit than it is to break away from a bad habit.

He who makes it a rule always to earn his dollar before he spends it, will never be a beggar or a slave to debt.

It is easier to avoid beginning to tamper with tobacco and strong drink than it is to free yourself from the appetite if it once be acquired.

Don't drink any whiskey only for medical purposes or when you want it.

Don't say anything about your neighbor unless you know something very mean.

Don't advertise your business by hand bills or newspapers. Write and post your advertisement on the back of your vest and then pull on your coat.

Don't get in debt unless you see some way to beat your creditor out of his money and make him still believe you are his friend and would pay him if you could, and you wouldn't.

Don't get a man to endorse your note unless you can get away before it comes due, because he might want to have you arrested as a swindler if he has it to pay.

Don't buy your shoes, hat, and clothing from a merchant at home. Send off for them. Those sold at home are just as good if not better but then ordering from abroad sounds bigly.

Don't speak well of a strange young lady who has just come to town. Some of her friends might brag the end of your nose, and besides let her be what she will she may be your superior.

Don't fail to "side in" with the new preacher when he comes, because he will have a better opinion of you when he first meets you than he will when he leaves, for you'll still owe quarterage.

Don't forget to put on a heavy coat of brass, a long tail coat and appear to be very religious. The merchants who know you by having your unpaid bills and the friends who have swindled will know your deceit but some new man, who you can cheat won't.—Douglas Breeze.

Careful of His Feelings.

"Tom, dear," said young Mrs. Newlywed very gently, "it was thoughtful of you, and I appreciate it ever so much, but a man should never undertake to select anything for his wife to wear."

"What do you mean?" he asked in surprise.

"These buttons you brought for me," and she held up a half dozen red poker chips. "I found them on the mantel in your room, and I knew of course, that you had brought them home for me."

"You can't see them can you?"

"No. But I appreciate your thoughtfulness just the same. You got them at a bargain, didn't you?"

"Um—yes."

"Well you were cheated. I don't see how anybody who makes buttons could have been so silly as to forget to put in the holes that the thread goes through when you sew them on."

And Tom said he would take them back and exchange them.

Women Will Be Appointed.

Washington, January 14.—The treasury department has information which leads to the conclusion that to a limited extent at least girls and women are being deceived of this country for immoral purposes.

With a view to ascertain the exact facts, the department has decided to appoint a number of women inspectors for employment at the port of New York, whose duty it will be to board all incoming steamers and make investigation into suspicious cases in the first and second cabins and to give useful information and advice to those who may be ignorant of the real character of the houses in which they may have been promised honest employment.

Town Killers.

Town-killers, says an Oracle, are classified into eight separate branches, as follows: First, those who go out of town to do their shopping; second, those who are opposed to improvements; third, those who prefer a quiet town to one of push and business; fourth, those who imagine they own the whole town; fifth, those who deride public spirited men; sixth, those who oppose every movement that does not seem to benefit; seventh, those who seek to injure the credit or reputation of individuals; eighth, those who take the town paper and do not pay for it. There are always a few town killers in every town but fortunately everybody knows who they are and how to handle them.

To Relieve Toothache.

Eight out of ten cases of tooth ache can be relieved by getting some bread soda, bicarbonate of soda, not baking powder—dusting it on a piece of cotton wool and placing this in the cavity. If all the teeth ache together the cause is generally acidity of the mouth. In that case dissolve the soda in warm water and wash the teeth with it. You will be well in an instant.

Public Improvements.

There is a western town which boasts of never having spent a cent for public improvements, and the result is easily told. Its population twenty-five years ago was 6,580. Its population today is about 1,000. It got to be such a dead town that people died to get out of it.

Some people regard life as a tragedy, a few find it to be a comedy, and most of us go through it longing for a better show.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Official Organ of both City and County.

The burglars are still doing business in Atlanta.

It cost $18,500 to run Hall county in 1901, and $32,241.61 in 1902.

The first car wheels ever made in the South were manufactured in Atlanta last week.

Twenty cars of cloth from the Paeolet Cotton Mill at Gainesville were shipped to Shanghai, China, last week.

There is a clock owned by Col. C. F. Davis of Bladen county, N. C., which is said to have been running 150 years.

It is announced that daily papers are to be published on steamers. News to be furnished by Marconi wireless telegraph system.

The Superior court of Hart county, Ga., was postponed last week on account of the prevalence of small pox in adjoining counties.

Mr. N. G. Gonzales, editor of Columbia, S. C., was shot by Lieutenant Governor James H. Tillman last week, and has since died.

About 30,000 people are suffering for the want of food in Northern Sweden. Sufferers are living on pine bark mixed with Iceland moss.

A large amount of money is being raised in Atlanta to advertise that city and Georgia. Atlanta is always wide awake when it comes to anything that will benefit her city.

Berrien and Worth counties were visited by a very destructive cyclone a few days ago. House timbers were blown a mile or so, a few people were injured but no one killed.

In Rome, Ga., last Monday Andrew Fletcher shot and killed himself after attending the burial of his friend Scots Bowers, who committed suicide by taking laudanum.

The federal prison in Atlanta is to have an addition to it to cost $1,500,000, and when completed will give accommodation for all violators of the law coming under the jurisdiction of Uncle Sam in this country.

A Washington dispatch to the N. Y. World states that the negro politicians of Georgia demand the removal of the white postmistress at LaGrange and the appointment of a negro to that office. This is not surprising. It would not be surprising if they should demand all the federal offices in the state. They intend to vote in the next Republican national convention for their champion in the White House, but they may be trusted not to overlook the question of the substantial favors that are demanded in return.—Macon Telegraph.

We fully agree with Bro. Bell of the Wiregrass Blade, in the following remarks: "We are in favor of allowing a woman all the showing and advantage consistent with the welfare of the country, but this thing of women shooting men down for very little or no cause, and getting comparatively no punishment is getting to be entirely too numerous. A woman deliberately pulled a pistol and shot a young man's brains out in Macon the other day because he reported some remark of a disparaging nature, which he had heard some other fellow make about her. She was then allowed to go free on one thousand dollars bail. In Savannah a few weeks ago a negro was sent to the gang for two years for stealing one banana, while a woman who had stolen hundreds of dollars' worth of diamonds was only sent up for the same length of time."

Uncle Harvie Hunt, one of White county's oldest citizens, died last week.

The women's butchers' union at the Chicago stock yard, has a membership of 600.

Owing to the wickedness of Bremerton, Washington, the ships all keep away.

The State University at Athens is going to build an $8,000 building as an addition.

In Pennsylvania one night last week 300 freezing citizens held up a train and emptied four cars of its coal.

A young couple wedded in Pennsylvania the other day as the train dashed along at the rate of 50 miles an hour.

Last week the citizens of Birmingham, Ala., contributed 50 cars loads of coal to relieve the sufferers in New York and Chicago.

At Albany, N. Y., master mechanic Christenson. Constructor of the New 16-inch gun died with paralysis a few days ago.

Dr. Cryle of Cleveland, O., announces that through a certain fluid life can be restored to apparently dead bodies.

The first negro appointed to office in Mississippi was C. T. Montgomery, a former slave of Jefferson Davis.

Last Sunday's Atlanta Constitution continued 58 pages. The Constitution is one of the greatest newspapers in the south and everybody likes to read it.

The American and Journal of New York will erect a 20 story building and move into it. This is only 19 stories higher than the Negro office.

It looks like the woman of Floyd county prefer being single, as eighteen divorce suits came up before the Superior court last Saturday.

Gov. Terrell has been notified that small pox has appeared in Hart, Macon, Polk, Fayette, Madison and three or four other counties in Georgia.

A New York court has just given a verdict for $1,500 to a man who suffered the loss of seven teeth by being struck in the mouth by a street railway conductor. That would fix the legal price of teeth in New York at about $214.29 each, remarks the Savannah News.

The pardoning of a number of criminals in Georgia occur nearly every week, and among them of ten some the worst kind of violators of law, and it begins to look to us that too many convicts after having a fair and impartial trial before a jury having all the facts before them are turned loose. It encourages crime to some extent.

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send free the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatise on Rheumatism ever published. No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformed, sciatic, neuralgic, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "sure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how my mother was cured. I am neither a doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood, and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this work of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are worn and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "hopeless." All you have to do is write and Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experience. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, I will pay you to investigate my cure, anyway, and prove for yourself these claims I make. Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism no matter where located, send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR RAINBOLT, Bloomfield, Ind.

Double Mail Needed.

Owing to the extremely bad condition of the public road from this city to Dahlonega, and in addition to that, the repeated failures of the Southern Railway morning train to arrive here on time, the people of Dahlonega have become very restless about their mail facilities.

Postmaster Farrow suggests a solution to their troubles, which is altogether new—a "double daily" mail from this city to Dahlonega. He says, let the present schedule continue as it now is, over the route it now travels, leaving here after the arrival to the morning train due here at 10.37 a. m., and put on a daily mail via Gowan, Morrayville, Halfway and Garland to leave here at 8 a. m. everyday carry the mail that has accumulated here from six or eight other towns. These last four post-offices are now supplied, two of them by a daily mail from Price, and the other two by a tri-weekly mail from Dahlonega, costing almost as much as it would cost to put on the "double daily."

Postmaster Farrow says there is a growing disposition on the part of the Government to practically convert most of the star routes (all routes carried by horsepower) into Rural Delivery Routes, and that the inauguration of the "double daily" would soon result in both routes becoming practically Rural Delivery Routes. This would be a great blessing not only to Dahlonega, but to the people on both routes, by giving them their mail at their homes.—Eagle.

A negro man and woman appeared in Judge Broyles Court in Atlanta the other day and asked to be allowed to be married. The license was procured and a preacher or in jail charged with stealing wood was brought out and told to tie the knot.

$300,000 is being paid out to the Georgia school teachers this week.

Atlanta is still wanting. It is now a new post-office.

RUTS

The walking sick, what a crowd of them there are: Persons who are thin and weak but not sick enough to go to bed.

"Chronic cases" that's what the doctors call them, which in common English means—long sickness.

To stop the continued loss of flesh they need Scott's Emulsion. For the feeling of weakness they need Scott's Emulsion.

It makes new flesh and gives new life to the weak system.

Scott's Emulsion gets thin and weak persons out of the rut. It makes new, rich blood, strengthens the nerves and gives appetite for ordinary food.

Scott's Emulsion can be taken as long as sickness lasts and do good all the time.

There's new strength and flesh in every dose.

We will be glad to send you a few doses free. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 400 Pearl St., N. Y. 50c. and $1. all druggists.

It is announced semi-officially the government experts engaged in segregating the coal lands of the Choctaw nation for sale at public auction in conformity with the recently enacted treaty, have been able to find but 200,000 acres of coal land instead of 500,000 as specified in the treaty. Already eastern capitalists are on the ground preparing to buy in these lands.

A new question has been raised on Pennsylvania's compulsory school law. A petty court at Stroudsburg has decided that a mother is a proper teacher for her child in given instruction by the mother at home, all of the requirements of the compulsory education law have been complied with. The matter will probably go to a higher court.—Savannah News.

It is noticeable that in selecting and appointing a negro to a position in the president gave the Boston colored brother a subordinate office. He did not appoint him collector of the port collector of interna revenue or postmaster. Doubtless the president reasoned correctly that the Boston people would prefer white men for these places.—Columbus Sun.

WHAT'S THIS? A 1/2 OFF SALE.

That Means 25c. saved on each $1.00 bought.

Mr. Sam T. Inman will give the new Presbyterian university proposed to be built in Atlanta, $25,000.

The money being received by school teachers is balance due them for 1902. Lumpkin county receives $2,111.20. Gov. Terrell says hereafter the teachers will be paid off by the month, commencing promptly with January.

Some days ago while James Linzerfelt of this county, was out in the mountains hunting his hogs, a mile from any ones house, he came in sight of a bark hut and as he approached a strange, smutty, dirty looking man ran out of it with hair hanging down to his shoulders. The man was soon out of sight. Who it is no one knows, but is supposed to be a murderer that is doubtless wanted badly some where. In this hut was nothing but a bed of leaves on which he slept, an old last and a rusty tin bucket. The latter looked like it had been used as a cooking utensil.

Farmers Institute to be Established.

Atlanta, Ga., Jan. 17, (Savannah) Governor Terrell returned to his office this morning and announced that the board of trustees of the States University at Athens last night provided for farmers' institutes to be established throughout the state.

There will be one in each senatorial district in the state, or 44 in number. They will be under the supervision of Hon. Horace Jordan, of Jasper as present state senator from that district.

These institutes will be established in the early spring and summer. Lately Governor Terrell says they hope to have one in every county in the state. This move was taken, no doubt, to further the Flynt bill, to remove the agricultural college from the State University.

An effort is being made to raise $1,000,000 to build a Presbyterian university in Atlanta.

It is said that Sam Patriek, residing near Auraria, has another crazy daughter who he has to keep tied. He already has two girls in the asylum, which is very unfortunate and distressing to the old man in his declining days.

Our friend and patron, Mr. J. H. McKee, was up from Dawson county last Monday to see his family. He has been a weekly reader of the NUGGET for several years and while here subscribed for two this time.

The lecture of Dr. Eugene May at the College Chapel Tuesday night to the Young Mens Christian Association of this place, is said to have been a most excellent one. Dr. May lectured here last year and gave perfect satisfaction both times.

A gentleman wrote us that he would subscribe for the NUGGET this week provided we would wait till the end of the year for our pay. He is a farmer and we would like to know if he sells corn cheap and waits this long for his money.

Mr. W. W. Ash, who resides in the stock land district of Yahoola, was down this week trying to buy enough hogs to make his years meat. This is the result of the stock law in the mountains. Mr. Ash always raised his own meat before this law went into force in his section.

Judge Huff has contracted with Mr. Cal Jackson to keep the papers another year at last years price—$5.00 per month for all sent him. There has been only two papers in his charge for some time—a white woman and a girl, both of whom are so well treated that they felt uneasy before he contracted for them for fear they would fall into some one elses hands.

It may be that a tunnel will be cut through the Findley Hill above Fish Trap branch for the electric cars to enter Dahlonega from Gainesville, instead of coming up the Yahoola creek and around the point of the hill. Gen. Warner was investigating the matter the other day, and will decide as soon as a survey is made. It is a very rough route up the Yahoola the way the survey is made, and it may be that the tunnel will be the easiest and cheapest route.

Elias Grizzle of this county is in a heap of trouble, most of it being brought on by his own conduct. Not many months ago his wife was sent to the asylum for the second time, and is there now. Later on he won the affections of another woman who agreed to share his pleasures and troubles alike. He asked for a divorce last court but the jury refused to grant it. In a couple of months after court adjourned he married anyway. But this is not the worst he is accused of doing. A young girl of Thomas Williams of his neighborhood, says that Grizzle is the father of her child and early on Monday morning a warrant was sworn out for him. If the man is not a prominent candidate for the chain gang we can't see why.

Lieut. Fred Price is at home here on a 21 days furlough, having arrived Sunday night. At the expiration of about 14 days Lieut. Price will return to his command in Michigan, and leave there for the Philippine Islands early in March.

They failed to catch Green Marlow who stole Mr. Gaddis' cow in this county a few nights ago, but found the animal over at a Mr. Brown's in Fannin county to whom he had sold her for just half her value—$5.00. The people of the community where he lived will be glad that Marlow is gone, for he stole everything he could.

Mr. J. B. Duckett died at his home near Porter Springs last Saturday at about 4 o'clock, p. m. He was about 67 years of age, had been a resident of Lumpkin county all his life. Was highly respected and liked by all who knew him. Mr. Duckett had been a very stout, healthy man until a short time ago, when he took sick and broke down all at once. The deceased leaves many relatives and a host of friends to mourn his loss. He was a strict member of the Methodist church and no doubt has gone to rest.

The University Publishing Co. of New York, having seen a picture of a bird's eye view of Dahlonega, taken by Hon. G. D. Bruce, sent to him recently for the original to be used in a geography soon to be published by this company. This proves that Mr. Bruce is a first-class photographer and much credit is due him for turning out work in such a splendid manner as to catch the eyes of our northern friends and cause us to get a beautiful picture of Dahlonega in a book where it will be seen by hundreds of people who know nothing about the Golden City. It will be a big advertisement for the place.

John S. Lance, who was wanted in this county for misdemeanor, was arrested in Union county last week by Sheriff Davis and Constable Walker, and caused to make a bond for his appearance at the spring term of Lumpkin Superior court. They located John at a house where he slept in the kitchen on a quilt, but when they approached the dwelling he jumped out of a window and ran off up on the mountain. The sheriff told him that he had better come back and make bond, but he declined then, saying that he might do so the next day. The officials departed and called again the next morning, but there was no John present. Sheriff Davis informed his folks that he was obliged to come home and to tell John to meet him at another time, and disappeared again. But as soon as they got out of sight they slipped back and watched the house, and it was not long until John came in from his hiding place and went in the house, thinking the officers were far away. When an opportunity was offered they slipped and got into the stable and when the defendant came in to feed his horse they nabbed him and he decided to make bond right then.

Col. Huff visited Atlanta last week to secure some rights of ways for the Briar Patch Co. for its ditch, which runs through some of the property of the F. W. Hall estate.

Letters received by parties in Dahlonega from persons in Anniston, Ala., state that there are at least 200 cases of small pox in that city, and the pest house is so full it won't hold any more. We are also informed that the disease is at Bessemer and at other places in Alabama.

With this issue ends the 14th volume of the DAHLONEGA NUGGET. Since becoming its owner, a little over six years ago, the writer has met with much encouragement on every hand, receiving such a liberal patronage as to enable it to be doing a prosperous business, causing us to have a kind feeling toward you all. Thanks, to each and every one. We will do our full duty in trying to keep the NUGGET up to its present standard, so it will always be a welcome visitor to your homes.

Out at Randa last Thursday at Mr. Anderson's sale quite a number of fights occurred, the most interesting one being between Martin Wehnt, generally known as Red Fox, and Jordan Wehnt. They are cousins, but being a kin made no difference. They fought, knocked and scratched, resulting Martin in losing several locks of his red beard, and his antagonist getting a black eye. Martin got the best of it and is now wearing the belt, being the first time he ever whipped a man in his life, but he made a complete job of this. Hisson, Martin, also had several fights. Shiah Bruce and "Scoop" Gaddis also hitched and made the blood fly for a while. There were many spectators and plenty of whiskey to drink making it a very interesting occasion.

On Friday night Lula Carrell, Ida Stevens and Anna Thomas, in company with Morris Anderson and Nelson Goodluck, all colored, went out on "Pea Ridge" serenading. The women furnished the vocal music and the men the instrumental. There must have been some stimulants on board for the music had a similar noise to that of a wooden axle tree to a wagon, needing tar. Everything passed off lovely for awhile but about 10 o'clock the women fell out about their charming lovers and fought for awhile like men, resulting in Lula getting her nose mashed as flat as a squash, rendering her unable to furnish any more perfect music for a short while. Anna had a chunk of flesh removed from her jaw by Lulas foot crushers and now likes a mouthful of flesh of being a perfect woman. Their escorts tried to stop them but without success. At last Nelson thought by playing off dead they might cease. So down he dropped on the ground, closing his eyes and opening his big mouth. It had the desired effect, for as soon as they saw the moon shining down his throat, fully exposing all of the interior machinery of the supposed dead negro's stomach, the women got scared and ran off and none but Lula has been heard of since. Next morning the battlefield presented an interesting sight. The ground was torn up and many ornamental articles scattered about, such as old pieces of bustles, hats, long lorgnet socks, etc. The mayor sentenced the mashed nose negro to pay a fine of two dollars cost.

Good apples sell from the wagons at 90 cents per bushel.

That booth for the Dahlonega telephone office, which has been on the road since last fall, has arrived and is now in position.

Mr. M. J. Williams requests us to ask the parties who carried off his wire chicken coop Christmas to please return it or let him know where it is.

Cadet Earnest Harris of Bethlehem, Ga., received a telephone message last Thursday saying that his father was in Atlanta at the point of death.

The case of John Chatten of this county, who is asking for a new trial in the District court of the United States, comes up in Atlanta on the 7th of February.

Now that Sallie Wylie, the negro lunatic, has gone to the asylum her husband who ran away on account of a true bill being returned against him for assault with intent to murder, is at liberty to return as his wife was the only witness.

David Bishop of this county, was arrested by Sheriff Davis one night last week at John Ashes, on a warrant sent him from White county, charging David with misdemeanor, holding him in jail until Rev. D. W. Caldwell, and Mr. Will Jones of Chestabee district signed his bond.

B. R. Meaders & Sons have placed a clock in their show window which gives the correct Eastern time. They get the correct time every day over the phone. This will prove of great convenience to our citizens who have failed to get their letters off on the mail by not having the schedule time.

Little Billie Sigal making a failure in controlling the politics of either the town or county after a strong effort, is now trying to take the Baptist church, at this place, away from the Lord and give it to an individual. Having already named it, to the disgust of the gentlemen whose name it bears.

Two cars for the street railway of Gainesville were received several days ago and it was the intention of Gen. Warner to go down this week and have them put in motion to the delight of the citizens of that thriving city, and we guess by this time they are running and the people are using them from the depot to town.

We will repeat, that correspondents must send in their names if they wish communications published. You can sign what you wish to your letters but your name must accompany them for our benefit, not to be divulged by us unless called on in a legal manner. Besides this, make your letters short. Boil them down like your wife or mother does when she wants to make good thick gravy.

As the U. S. field inspector, who visited this place last week decided to recommend no changes in the present mail schedule from here to Gainesville, but favored a daily mail by the way of Bearden's bridge, the citizens have sent off a petition favoring it at once. This would give us two mails a day from Gainesville, one about noon and the other at night during the winter season, and earlier as the days grow longer. Surely when the postmaster at both ends of the line and all the people favor and ask for it the department will not turn a deaf ear.

E. E. Crisson is selling out his entire stock of dry goods at actual cost, in order to move his business to the country. About 1,000 yards of cashmere. Good silk brocades outing, flannels, worsteds, clothing and much calico. Notions and a good line of shoes. A nice line of mens' and boys' hats, and many things too tedious to mention—terms cash. Now is the time to buy first-class goods at cost. Come and see for yourself.

Very Respectfully,
E. E. Crisson.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Charlie Kerr is recovering.

Mrs. W. W. Scott of this county, is expecting to move to Gainesville.

Mrs. M. J. Williams has been very sick this week, but is better now.

Mr. Austins card of thanks was crowded out of this issue but will appear in our next.

Mr. Joe Jones of Hall, was wedded recently to Miss Minnie Kenimer, of Lumpkin county.

Scour Bright at B. R. Meaders & Sons. The best thing to clean glass in the world. Price 5 cents a bar.

Gen. Hardin of Kentucky, has been here this week taking a peep at Crowa Mountain gold mine, in which he is interested.

We regret to learn that Mr. James Hughes, formerly of Dahlonega but not of Auraria, is suffering much with consumption.

Mr. Miles Stargel of this county, was wedded a few days ago to Miss Barrett, a daughter of Mr. John Barrett, of White.

Mr. R. C. Meaders killed and shipped a large porker to Gainesville this morning, weighing 365 pounds for which he is to receive $32.85.

Maj. Tilson, the recently appointed commandant at this place, will likely be here by the time the spring session of the college begins next month.

Mr. Pratt of Atlanta, who has been up for some time at the pyrites mine in this county, having runways made for his water power, mill, etc., has returned to Atlanta to be back in a short time.

When as many as ten students wish their names and addresses on envelopes, we furnish either linen or rag and nicely print 50 each and only charge them 15 cents apiece, just about what the blank ones cost you elsewhere.

Mr. John H. Moore, since removing to his new quarters besides fitting up the nicest beef market in town has enlarged his grocery business, enabling him to supply everybody with what they want in this line at reasonable figures.

All parties should remember that they are not allowed to be out after 11 o'clock at night in Dahlonega unless some good excuse can be given. The night watchman is authorized by the city council to make arrests.

The Dahlonega Chapter of Royal Arch Mersons, had an oyster stew last Tuesday evening in the building recently occupied by Mrs. Strickland's millinery store. Every one present enjoyed themselves very much.

The remains of Mrs. Hall, first wife of Capt. F. W. Hall, deceased, buried at this place, have been taken up this week and sent to Atlanta, and placed by the side of her husband. And the remains of Mr. O. G. Brown, also buried here were carried to Gainesville.

We look for another wedding in Dahlonega soon. The candidates were taking in the beautiful scenery in the outskirts of the town last Sunday. At last accounts the man was enquiring for some wine. Quite likely they aim to "eat drink and be merry for tomorrow they may die."

The county school commissioner when buying the second package of International Stock Food said, "The other package started my fatening hogs to eating more in three days." B. R. Meaders & Sons sell this stock food in 25c, 50c, $1.00 and $3.50 packages. It will make your stock eat and make what they eat do them more good.

Some more parties are speaking of going to Alabama next week from this county. We are a little afraid that some of them will come in contact with the small pox in their travels, which would be regretted when it is too late. This disease is already in twelve counties in Georgia, nearly all over Alabama and keeps spreading.

Mining Notes.

So far there has been no weather severe enough to retard the progress of mining operations and all this kind of work is moving along as usual this week.

At the Lockhart, operated by Mr. Maxwell, four hands in the tunnel get out enough ore to run in stamps one shift, including the tramming. Mines operated in such an economical manner as this are bound to pay.

The company preparing to operate the Cavender's Creek gold mine, in this county, has purchased the contract of cutting the canal from Messrs. Wild and Asbury and is doing the work itself. Mr. Wild is the general manager of the company for the present and may continue.

Mr. W. T. Drake, of Corning, N. Y., who is interested in the Lumpkin Gold Mine, was here first of the week in company with Mr. W. L. Vincent from the same city, looking over the property. They went from here to White county accompanied by Mr. R. Walker of Dahlonega.

The incline at the Bonning is considerably more than a hundred feet deep and the ore continues good. Although there is an idle stamp mill within a few steps of this mine, the ore has to be transported by electric cars quite a distance to the big Consolidated mill. The convenient mill belongs to the other company.

Over at the copper mines things are working like a charm. They have two air drilling machines running in the shaft both day and night, cutting through ore that is said by those who know, to be better than the best grade found in Tennessee. About twenty-five hands are employed this month doing different kinds of work, and when springs open a much larger force will be added, so as to get out a large supply of ore by the time the railroad from Gainesville is ready to ship it.

Better success than they are having at the Crown Mountain gold mine could not be expected. The ore is good, abundant and easy to handle, getting enough to the mill to keep it running on full time both day and night and at much less expense than at any time since the plant started. A number of very fine large pieces of ore were found in the Crown Mountain cut last week, and the amount of gold they contained visible to the naked eye caused a good deal of excitement, even among the native miners. One nugget picked up in the cut weighed nearly three pennyweights. These were float rocks and they are expecting to strike the vein from where they came every day.

Rev. J. N. Austin of Half Way, has been confined to his room and unable to walk for more than six weeks and no one to wait on him except his afflicted wife. Now if you wish to do a religious duty here's an opportunity to send this good old man something. There is no use sending to foreign countries for some one to help when there are persons needing it right here.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE
It makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

A Queer People.

Writing of the Lolos of Chinese Turkestan, Rev. W. M. Upcraft says: "The men wear a loose blouse and wide, short trousers made of blue cotton cloth, over which a stout plaited felt cloak is thrown, which reaches from the neck to the knees and is useful by day in cold or wet weather and at night forms an ample covering." As far as I remember, they wear long trousers too. To quote again from the same writer: "One peculiar feature is the manner of dressing the hair. Instead of wearing a cue in the way adopted by the Chinese, the Lolos allow the hair to grow long in the front, then braid into a kind of horn above the forehead, so that it becomes the most conspicuous object about them. The women folks wear a short jacket, often finely embroidered, over a plaited skirt, not unlike a Scotch kilt. Their feet and ankles are bare, and a fine contrast to the cramped, deformed feet of the Chinese women." They have well formed figures and even features. The case with which they go about their work attracts the attention and wins the admiration of the traveler.

On this special occasion I found the whole family sitting around a big log fire watching the cooking of a cow, which had died from a cold, in an enormous iron pot. When they considered the carcass cooked, the housewife took a big wooden spoon several feet long and shoveled the contents of the pot into small tubs, which were placed before each man, likewise a good supply of rice.

Wooden spoons were used in eating. Chopsticks I did not see. The tubs were carefully watched and replenished as soon as a diminution became noticeable. When the principal performers could no longer indulge, the tubs were passed to the younger and inferior members of the household, and between them all they managed to put out of sight both cow and rice. Beds were not in use, so I was offered the use of a grain chest—quite a dignified place compared with the rest.

The Sort of Men Girls Like.

As a man looks to a woman to be womanly, a woman expects a man to be manly; therefore, who need hardly wonder that she prefers to be wooed by a man whose actions tell of determination and resolve to one whose attitude is one of meekness and chronic shyness, who stammers and blushes whenever he ventures to address his lady-love in public.

While the timid lover is worshipping from afar, hoping, yet fearing, that his worship is understood by his divinity, the more manly lover steps in, and, by almost sheer masterfulness and determination, combined with tender courtesy and a wish to please, gains the prize, leaving the timid one to moan his loss in silence, with a heart filled with the bitter thought that had he only been a little more confident in his wooing the fair one might have been his.

In love affairs women like masters, not slaves; they like to feel that they are being wooed, not that they are doing the wooing. Therefore, those young men who wish to prove successful lovers must cast aside all bashfulness and timidity, and must not only believe in the old, but true saying, that "Only the brave deserve the fair," but must act up to it.

Women Wanted In South Africa.

The lack of British women in South Africa is one of the serious facts with which the statesman has to grapple. It is vital that a careful directed emigration of women from England should be organized by the state. A writer in the Quarterly Review reckons that 8,000 British women are needed a year to meet the emergency, and this is a total which it should not be difficult to find in England, where we have a very large excess of women.—London Mail.

Cleaning Windows.

For washing windows use a piece of chamoin. A little ammonia in a pailful of water is all that is necessary. The chamoin will wash the glass, and then wipe it dry, leaving no lint. Every one who wash windows knows the bother of using several different cloths—the wet cloth, the dry cloth and the polishing rag. The chamoin takes the place of a three. Wrung dry it is an excellent dusting cloth, and for cleaning woodwork it has no equal. Picture-frames and looking-glasses are improved by its use.—January Woman's Home Companion.

Chamoin skins for sale by B. R. Meaders & Sons.

One of the wonderful things is that a woman with fair intelligence will paint her cheeks like a clown's and appear on the streets. Why does she do it? Does she imagine the people think the paint is blood of youth? Does she not know that people laugh at her? There are two things that people are quick to notice—when a man wears a wig and a woman paints her cheeks.—Atchison Globe.

Attention Young Men.

The state has established at Dahlonega the best educational plant in North Georgia. Tuition free and board is only $8 per month in the Dormitory. One Hundred Dollars will cover actual cost of college expenses for 9 months. A diploma from this state College is a high honor and stands for work, for scholarship, for character. The state wants to help you help yourself. An investment in brain power pays the best dividends. Will you not accept the state's offer?

The college holds the state championship in oratory.

Cured

At 70 of Heart Disease Contracted

During Civil War—Veteran Grateful.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Effected Cure.

Heart disease is curable, but in people of advanced age it does not readily lend itself to ordinary treatment. There is, however, hope for all sufferers in Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. After suffering from attacks, hundreds of cases, and from the letters of grateful sufferers, will cure where all else has failed. It is not only a wonderful cure for weak and diseased hearts, but it is a blood tonic, a regulator of the heart's action and the most effective treatment ever formulated for improving the circulation of the blood.

"During the Civil War I contracted heart disease, and in 1896, while living in the grand old town of Lexington, Va., I grew so much worse, I left there with my wife to visit my sister-in-law, Mrs. T. A. Kirby, at Knoxville, Va. While I laid nothing to anyone I never expected to live to return to the dear old town. On reaching Mrs. Kirby's she insisted I should try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure. I procured a few bottles of it, also the Nervine and Tonic. After using one or two bottles I could see no improvement, and I despaired of ever being better, but my faithful wife insisted on keeping it up, which I did. Improvement soon began in earnest and I took in all fifteen or sixteen bottles. I was restored to perfect health and while I am 70 years old, I am comparatively a young man. You are a benefactor, and I cheerfully recommend Dr. Miles' Heart Cure to suffering humanity."—J. L. SLACKMISTERS, Salem, Va.

Saved Her Life from Pneumonia

"My wife had a severe attack of Pneumonia which followed a case of La Grippe and I believe that FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR saved her life," writes James Coffee, of Raymond, Missouri.

Good Results in Every Case

Dr. C. J. Bishop, Agnew, Mich., writes: "I have used FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR in three very severe cases of pneumonia with good results in every case."

Pneumonia follows a cold, but never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar Stops the Cough and heals the lungs.

Cured of Terrible Cough on Lungs

N. Jackson, of Danville, Ill., writes: "My daughter had a severe attack of La Grippe and a terrible cough on her lungs. We tried a great many remedies without relief. She tried FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR which cured her. She has never been troubled with a cough since."

Cured When Very Low With Pneumonia

J. W. Bryan, of Lowder, Ill., writes: "My little boy was very low with pneumonia. Unknown to the doctor we gave him FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR. The result was magical and puzzled the doctor, as it immediately stopped the racking cough and he quickly recovered."

CURRY SCHOOL, No. 12.

COL. PRICE:

On Arbor day we met and set out the following: Cedars 11, Maples 9, Spruce 1, Columbia Poplar 1, Laurel 2, Lilac 5, Roses 5, Snow Ball 1, with other shrubs too tedious to mention. Our school yard is surely pretty, and presents a much nicer appearance than it did before we met and set out all the trees.

COL. W. P. PRICE.

DEAR SIR:

We, the committee met at Garland School, No. 4, for the purpose of planting out ornamental shade trees and flowers. The trees we planted are: 6 Maples, 4 Blooming Dog Woods, 4 Sycamores, 1 Poplar, 2 Cherries, 2 Blue Damsons, 2 Red Damsons, 2 Lillies, 10 Roses, 1 Lilac, 4 Honey Suckles, and a variety of other flowers. We named some of our trees after favorite people. We were glad to have the opportunity of decorating our school yards.

John D. Rockefeller, the Stands and Oil magnate, has offered a million dollars to any doctor for a new stomach.

Politeness Pays.

The story is going the rounds of the good fortune of a young lady of Milwaukee, Wis. Three years ago Miss Anna Maria Yonkers, a Milwaukee bookkeeper, was in Illinois railroad car. An elderly, plainly dressed passenger tottered and seemed about to faint. She jumped to his assistance, helped him and got a cup of water. He told her he was Charles W. Johnston, of Chicago, an invalid. He wrote down her name and address in his note book. Several times she has received letters from him, the latest one bade her to look out for a surprise. The surprise materialized last Saturday week. It was a check for forty thousand dollars. That was a pretty substantial dividend on the little investment in politeness and sympathetic consideration for a fellow passenger. Of course, everybody who is polite to a fellow traveler is not going to meet with a millionaire, and perhaps, may not encounter such appreciation, but it cost but very little to be courteous and thoughtful of the comfort of those about us. Selfishness is very ungracious and unbecoming, and it is the person who is genuinely mindful of the rights, the comfort and the feelings of other people who is truly polite. It is this which marks the difference between the true gentleman and the fellow.

Smallpox Cure.

When Jenner discovered cowpox in England the world of science hurred an avalanche of fame upon his head, but when the most scientific school of medicine in the world, that of Paris, published this recipe as a panacea it passed unheeded. It is as failing as fate and conquers in every instance. It is harmless when taken by a well person. It will cure scarlet fever. Here is the recipe as I have used it to cure smallpox. When learned physicians said the patient would die, it cured. Sulphate of zinc, one grain digested, one grain: half a teaspoonful of water. When thoroughly mixed add four ounces of water. A teaspoonful is a dose. Either disease will disappear in twelve hours; for children, smaller doses according to age.—Green's Fruit Grower.

At Winsted, Conn., on New Year's Day a dozen young women of the best families formed a self-improvement club for 1903, pledging themselves not to swear, not to use slang, not to lose their tempers, not to gossip or say mean things about folks, not to fidget, fret or fuss so as to disturb others, not to let a day pass without doing something to make others more comfortable, not to laugh at the mistakes of others, not to handle the truth carelessly, not to say anything to make another unhappy. The penalty for breaking any of these resolutions was placed at one cent each, the accumulated fines to be used at the end of the year for some charitable purpose. At the end of the first nine days one woman had paid into the treasury sixty-five cents and two others sixty-one cents each.

A crowd of freezing men, women and children in New York last week attacked and seized seven cars loaded with coal containing more than 200 tons.

Rev. Styles at Port Gibson, Miss., was sent to the penitentiary last week for having too many wives. He is a nice looking aspect pretending to be showing the people the way to heaven.

Help Your Neighbors.

There are many ways in which every business man can help his community and help his own business by helping the business of his neighbor when opportunity offers.

Now, when you want to buy anything have anything made or get anything done it is better for you to trade with your neighbors if they possibly can supply your wants. Indeed, it is better for you to pay more for a less desirable purchase than to let your money go elsewhere. Do you believe that? Perhaps not. But wait—

If you patronize your neighbor you help to make him prosperous. You may not like him and his ways and all that sort of things, but it is better for you that your neighbors should be prosperous than that he should be a pauper. That is true whether you like him or not. If he is prosperous he will pay more taxes and thereby reduce your pro rata part, he will spend more money for a living and even if he does not spend it with you the man who gets it may, and you are directly benefitted.

If your neighbor is prosperous he can build a nice house and that improves the property about it and takes off some of the taxes from your property. If your neighbor is prosperous he is able to help liberally in the support of the schools, the churches and other public matters—he can help you carry burdens which otherwise you must carry without his help.

If your neighbor is not prosperous he cannot help you carry the burdens of school, church and other matters, he cannot help carry the tax burdens for he has nothing to pay upon.

If you help your neighbor's business you help your own, no matter who he is or in what calling he is engaged.—Calhoun Times.

While the north and north-west were locked in the embraces of a fearful blizzard last week, coal was so high that the poor people could not buy it, and in many places it could not be had for money. In one town in Ohio a train load, consisting of ten or twelve cars, was openly plundered by the populace, the best citizens of the place leading in the work. Such acts as this are revolutionary, and are only the first faint blubberings of what may be expected if the trusts are not throttled.—Cobb County Courier.

A new election for Mayor will be held at Winder because the polls closed an hour too soon.

The divorce wheel in Hall Superior Court last week kept up a rapid motion for two days.

THE NUGGET.

DAHLONEGA, JANUARY 29, 1903.
Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O.
as Second Class Matter.
Official Organ of both City and County.

Several cases of small pox have been developed in Twigs county.

Over $750,000 were paid out by the state treasurer last week.

Gainesville is booming now, but Dahlonega's time will come by and by.

There are ten men in Jefferson county, Ala., jail sentenced to be hanged.

J. H. Witzel has been elected ordinary of Fannin county. He is a democrat.

Cement and water plants will be constructed at Cartersville by Chicago capitalists to cost $2,000,000.

The Atlanta Artillery will be mustered out of the states service Feb. 1st, owing to the lack of interest.

Those selling cider in Georgia of 22 per cent spirits will have to pay the government tax. So says the authorities.

The Millard Lee insanity case in Atlanta has been dismissed from the Superior court and will go to the Supreme court.

A negro woman stealing coal at Macon the other morning received two loads of buckshot, and she is gone where no coal is needed.

The federal prisoners in Atlanta are going to start a weekly newspaper soon. The entire work will be done inside the prison by convicts.

Some unknown person robbed J. W. Scott in Atlanta the other day of his $800 pension and he had to apply to police headquarters for a place to sleep.

Sunday night Charleston was considerably shaken up by an earthquake causing the death of two persons. Plastering fell and walls cracked.

The Gainesville Eagles didn't reach Dahlonega until Saturday. We suppose that Bro. Craig was riding on the street car and forgot to send them out.

It has been decided to move the general office of the Bell Telephone Co. from New York to Atlanta, which will increase Atlanta's population more than 500.

Several negroes attended the presidents reception at the white house last Friday night. It seems that if the president can't get a bear he will take "coons."

A bill is before congress asking for an appropriation of $100,000 to mark the graves of the 30,152 Confederate prisoners that are buried in 89 localities throughout the country.

Only 800 teachers can be accommodated at the Normal school in Athens on account of the state failing to appropriate enough money to make the necessary arrangements.

If the Wiregrass Blade continues going down hill long like it has within the past few months it too will soon be numbered with those sorry newspapers mentioned by it not long ago. It generally gives an editor the don't care to go to the legislature.

In Atlanta last week a confederate after drawing his money got drunk and would have spent all of it had his wife and son not relieved him of it. The city court however got $1.75 of it. Such persons should not draw any more. The state should not have to buy people liquor.

The senate has passed the Foraker bill to mark the graves of the Confederate soldiers who died in northern prison during the civil war. This is the measure on which the late President McKinley had set his heart, and for which he first spoke in an address in the capitol at Atlanta during his visit there three years ago.

A Truthful Narrative, Sounds Like Fiction.

Some years ago Mr. Joseph England of Lumpkin county, at a country dance became involved in a quarrel with a Mr. Bottoms. In the general row Bottoms was killed. England was tried and convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. He was put to work at the Dade Coal Mines. His wife sued for and was granted a total divorce, and afterward married a Mr. Anthoney. After working quite awhile in the coal mines a cave fell on Mr. England and broke some of his limbs, and mashed him up to such an extent that it was thought that he would die. He got no better and Governor Alexander H. Stephens granted him a full pardon. Mr. England returned to Lumpkin county, found his wife had procured a divorce and worse still, had married again. He came to the gold mines near Dahlonega and soon was able to work some, and was employed by Capt. John Huff, then superintendent of the Hand & Barlow Gold Mines. Mr. England, after a short time, had improved in health and partially gotten over his injuries, so much so that he concluded to follow his wife, example and got married again, which he did. A few years passed and one day a gentleman and lady drove up to the mines and enquired if Mr. Joseph England was employed there. She was told that he was. The lady asked to see him, and he was pointed out to her, she shook hands with him and said "don't you know your first wife?" She then said, "Joe, they tell me you have married again." Joe replied "yes, and I am told you have married again." "Yes," said she "that's my husband," pointing to Mr. Anthoney. They talked awhile and the woman then remarked, "Joe, I must be going, but we will be living together again before we die." That was near 20 years ago.

Many changes have taken place since. Several years ago Mr. Anthoney died—likewise Mr. England's wife passed away. Capt. Huff, who was then superintendent of the mines under whom England worked, is now Ordinary of Lumpkin county, and on the 23rd January 1903, Judge Huff issued marriage license to Joseph England and Mrs. Anthoney (his first wife) and ere this time they have again been re-united as man and wife. And such is life.

Judging from what Hix writes we have scarcely had a sample of bad weather. This is what he says: "We have already said in print that February, according to our figuring, would bring many winter storms, and rough weather generally. We shall now see. Keep your eyes on our forecasts and your hand on the throttle."

RHEUMATISM CURED AT LAST.

Good News For All Who Suffer With Rheumatism Free.

To all who suffer with Rheumatism I will gladly send the wonderful story of how my mother was cured after years of suffering, together with the most elaborate treatment on Rheumatism ever published. No matter what your form of Rheumatism is, whether acute, chronic, muscular, inflammatory, deformant, sciatic, neuralgia, gout, lumbago, etc.—no matter how many doctors have failed in your case—no matter how many so-called "sure cures" you have tried—I want you to write to me and let me tell you how mother was cured. I am neither a Doctor nor a Professor—simply a plain man of business—but I have a CURE for Rheumatism, and I want to tell everyone who suffers with Rheumatism all about it. I wish to be clearly understood and trust that all who are suffering with this terrible disease, however apparently beyond the reach of cure, will write to me this day and I will send you by return mail this word of mine. I appeal especially to the "chronically ill" who are wearied and discouraged with "doctoring" and to those who have been cast aside as "incurable." All you have thought about Rheumatism may be wrong. Let me tell you our experiences. Surely, if you have Rheumatism, or have a suffering friend, it will pay you to investigate my offer, any way and prove for yourself these claims I make. Send me your address today—a postal card will do—and I will mail you this wonderful story. If you have any friends suffering with Rheumatism, no matter where located, send me their address, and I will mail them a copy. My address is VICTOR KATZMILL, Bloomfield, Ind.

Auraria Dots.

Auraria has opened the new year with a vim. Her farmers and miners seemed to have infused new life into their business.

Capitalists are here from Chicago, Kansas City and other western cities prospecting the Briar Patch mines, with a view of making a large addition to the force very soon.

Rev. V. A. Higgins has taken charge of the Betz school. He reports the conditions of the school very favorable.

Col. W. P. Price came down from Dahlonega last week on business.

Miss Blanche Gurley was the guest of Miss Bessie Miller this week.

It is interesting to note that Mr. J. B. England and Mrs. Mary Anthoney, after being separated for more than twenty years, and each having tried a new companion, were re-united in marriage last Sunday, Rev. V. A. Higgins officiating.

There is no better index to a community than the standard of its educational facilities. In comparison with the other schools and communities of Lumpkin county we think we can present a respectable showing. Many of our pupils have been advanced from the long continued primary grades to the higher branches of English Grammar and Composition, Natural Geography and United States History.

We are determined to generate new life along these lines. If you don't believe it come to see us.

It is reported that the Fulton county grand jury has found a number of illegal pensioners on the list from that county. Some of which are being paid and the parties having been dead for years.

The school fund for 1903 has been apportioned. The total amount is $1,547,132, and Lumpkin county's portion is $5,320. The next payment to teachers will come off some time next month if possible.

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free. Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. 50c. and $1; all druggists.

A Card of Thanks.

HALFWAY, GA., Jan. 19, 1903. EDITOR NUGGET:

As your paper is read by so many people at home and abroad, all over the union, I have a host of friends scattered every where. I wish in this way to tell them I have been closed in the house for over six weeks with crystalis, not able to walk a step or put my foot to the floor, I will in this condition be glad to read a letter from any of my friends. I am believing in and trusting God truly and fully all the time and He is in His way through the people, sympathizing with me. Here I wish to tender my thanks to the good people, Methodist, Baptist and some of no denomination, and one brother in Macon, Ga., and the Editor of the Cleveland Courier, for their kind remembrance of me in these days of afflictions and distress. In that they showed me that they were interested in my welfare by sending and bringing me a sufficiency of food, and some cash, to keep me from suffering up to date. Thanks to God for all these good people, and many thanks to them all, for their gifts and especially to Wahoo, Martins Ford and Auraria districts. God bless you all. Yours in Christ, J. N. CHRIST.

WHAT'S THIS? A 50% OFF SALE.

That Means 25c. saved on each $1.00 bought.

Yours for Business, J. T. MILLER. Auraria, Ga.

A true bill has been found against the manager of the Rome dispensary for selling liquor to a minor.

A negro boy at Savannah, Ga., shot into a lot of school children the other day and maimed two for life.

William Harkness, a drummer who declared in a loud tone on Marietta street, in Atlanta last week, "was glad Sherman burned Atlanta," was fined $10.75. Ought to have been $500.

At McIntyre, a station thirty miles south of Macon, on the Central Railroad, Friday, passenger train No. 2, with Engineer Cathwood in the cab, decapitated a white woman, apparently between 40 and 50 years old. Near McIntyre there is a long trestle, and when the engine rolled upon it the engineer observed a woman on the track. She was at the time too high from the earth to make a leap to safety and was to far from the end to run. She was knocked upon the rail and her head was completely severed from the body.

A Savannah drug company is advertising for $10,000 worth of prickly ash bark.

Over $50,000 has been received by the comptroller for the hire of the state convicts for the last quarter of 1902.

Sunday night some of the city negro convicts by the use of a key at the calaboose gained their freedom at Gainesville.

Congress will likely appropriate $40,000 for the advancement of the Georgia syrup growers $20,000 was appropriated last year.

John Coffee, who killed a revenue officer at Lula some years ago, was found dead in bed at that place last Sunday morning.

A reward of $150 has been offered by the governor for Drew Smith, charged with killing mail carrier Baker in Upson county recently.

Last week some of the negro street workers at Gainesville were discovered having the small pox and are now in the pest house at that city.

Before noon last Sunday the clouds cleared away and the rest of the day was warm and bright. Two fellows gathered up a gun and went out hunting, but we didn't learn what luck they had.

Mr. H. M. Tower, who signifies by his advertisement elsewhere in this issue that he wants all kinds of Indian relics, went out into the Davis settlement last Monday and secured several Indian arrow heads.

There is a man residing in Lumpkin county having a large family, none of whom can milk a cow, and when the old man goes off on business he has to either get some one to milk for him while he is gone else carry the animal with him.

The Dahlonega Portrait Co. has added to its business the Japanese chemical oil painting, which makes the finest pictures in the world. Any one wishing to take lessons now have an opportunity of doing so by calling at this company's place of business.

Col. O. J. Lilly went down to Gainesville last week to represent the North Georgia Electric Co. in a damage suit. He gained his case but when getting ready to come home found that some one had relieved him of his overcoat that was hanging on the hat rack.

Mr. Rusak, who is interested in the Briar Patch mine, was up last Monday, in company with a party of other gentlemen, looking over the Crown Mountain Co.'s plant and examining its method of working. They were shown over the property by Mr. J. F. Moore, and all seemed to be well pleased with its workings.

The revenue officials destroyed an illicit distillery near the residence of Mr. Wm. Waters in this county one day last week, causing the lady of the house to preach Collector Richardson and Marshal Grizzle's funerals. It was a large concern. Much beer on hand and 30 or 40 gallons of liquor.

Elias Grizzle hasn't been captured yet. At last accounts he was passing over the Blue Ridge singing, "Good Bye my Honey, I'm Gone." As we stated last week, Elias is in a heap of trouble. Has two living wives, seven children, a baby warrant against him and all his land attached for debt by the father of his first wife.

Last week, besides getting out our own paper, we printed the Dahlonega, turned out twelve other different jobs, consisting of letter heads, envelopes, church letters and sentences. To do this job work it required 10,250 impressions on our job presses. This is considerable different now than years ago when we had to do job work on a Washington hand press a hundred years old.

Fannin county was represented last Saturday in Commissioner Baker's court of this place in the person of Doby Tibson. Doby had been violating the Internal revenue law. The witnesses were all over in his home county but he didn't put Marshal Grizzle to any trouble in sending after them. He had just as much justice as he wanted and waived examination and went to the place prepared for all blockaders—Fulton county jail.

Remember that we keep a good supply of stationery on hand—linen, bond, or any other kind and do your printing upon short notice at reasonable terms.

Just think, Isaac Seabolt of White county, who was sent to the asylum 50 years ago is still there and alive. At the time he was sent away the place where he resided was in Lumpkin county.

Prof. J. S. Stewart was absent a few days first of the week attending the Annual School Master's Club, which convened in Athens this year. This club is held in a different city of Georgia every year.

The young men who came a long ways to learn agriculture will not be disappointed. When spring opens practical agriculture of the N. G. A. College will begin, giving all a chance who wish to learn the proper manner to till the soil.

The city council meets next Monday night, at which time permanent arrangements will be made about a night watch. The present one was only appointed by the mayor until a regular meeting of the body. There is said to be some three or four applicants for the position.

Mr. A. S. Wholeheart, who sued the North Georgia Electric Company for damages, caused by the erection of the dam in the Chesta-tee river, above his mill, failed to get a verdict for such in Hall Superior court last week, and now will not be allowed to have his dam so it will back the water nearer the other than 75 yards.

Samuel Rider, charged with stealing his mother's cow in this county, carrying and selling her in Gainesville, more than six months ago, was acquitted of the charge in Hall Superior court last week. His mother lost the cow, the animal was seen in this man's possession and it was also sold in Gainesville, but there was a missing link somewhere that couldn't be found by the jury.

Should the city council of Dahlonega wish to pass any measure of importance now it would find itself in awkward shape on account of the absence of two of its members until spring, likely. That is unless the measure meets the unanimous approval of the four present as the law requires a majority vote of the full board before an ordinance can be legally passed.

It is said that Dr. Elisha Palmour, the old negro conjurer, residing down in Dawson county, who has created so much trouble in Sam Patrick's family by causing them nearly all to go crazy by the use of his stuff, will likely get into trouble the next time he comes up. They have a good whipping in store for him and it would not be a thing a miss unless they strike at him and miss their aim.

On December 10th the board of trustees of the N. G. A. College had a meeting in reference to merchants and others extending credit to minor students to the detriment of the college, and resolved that said board would see to it that defense shall be made to all suits or attachments that may be brought on any such accounts. A copy of the resolution was mailed each business man in Dahlonega last week. So if any of them credit the boys against it will be at their own risk.

While here last Saturday, Mr. W. H. Courtney, one of White county's most prosperous citizens, dropped into see us. Mr. Courtney and his sons are now engaged in raising live blooded stock, short horn cattle, the best that can be found. Some of our citizens who have had to send to Gainesville recently and pay from $95 to $100 for a cow, realize the importance of having a farmer raising them here in their own county, giving citizens an opportunity of buying such cows or hogs as they desire right at home and not have to send the money off. Some of Lumpkin's farmers should follow this example of Courtney and sons.

Farmers have been getting $1.75 per bushel for white beans here.

Our weekly correspondent will keep our readers posted about Auraria affairs.

Scour Bright at B. R. Meaders & Sons. The best thing to clean glass in the world. Price 5 cents a bag.

Mr. W. H. Donaldson and Mr. Tom Strieger of this county, informed us last week that they too were going to Alabama this week and work awhile.

The one this paper belongs to said that they were getting tired of loaning it to you. Send a dollar and get one of your own and quit this way of borrowing.

Some days ago Miss Birdie Meaders of Dahlonega, who has been teaching school down at Appling, Ga. was wedded to Mr. J. P. Brown, quite a prominent gentleman of Savannah and hereafter that city will be their home.

Mr. J. M. Brooksher, who went down the country directly after Christmas to sell stock, came home last week for a week or two, after which he will return and remain with his partner, Mr. McGee, until spring or until they sell out.

Under date of the 20th inst., Mr. Henry Woody of Kle, N. C., in renewing his subscription to the Nugget, states this: "I hope to have the pleasure of reading your valuable paper one year longer. I can safely say it's the best paper published. Enclosed $1.00."

On last Thursday we warned people with no business not to be out after 11 o'clock here, that it was a violation of the city ordinance. That same night a person was caught out after this hour and was fined two and cost, making a total of $6. The defendant though was not a subscriber to the Nugget. This shows that it pays any one to take the Nugget.

E. E. Crisson is selling out his entire stock of dry goods at actual cost, in order to move his business to the country. About 1,000 yards of cashmere. Good silk brocades, flannels, worsteds, clothing and much calico. Notions and a good line of shoes. A nice line of men's and boys' hats and many things too tedious to mention—terms cash. Now is the time to buy first-class goods at cost. Come and see for yourself.

Very Respectfully,
E. E. Crisson.

Acting City Marshal Walker and Night Watchman Carter were attracted by the noise of music and dancing out at Narcissa Stevens last Thursday night. They went out and peeped through the blinds and saw Asburn Austin and Henry Elrod, each with a quart bottle of liquor in his pocket, in company with Anna Thomas and Ida Stevens, the two colored female fighters who left out a week previous for the country. Country life didn't suit them. No fun there, and both had rather die than to be robbed of their fun. Ida thumped on the guitar while Anna and Henry danced. The latter was giving the back step and the former the hoochie coochie dance, and "Aunt" Narcissa and Asburn were furnishing the laughter with all the variations. In stepped the officers. The fun ceased and sweetness turned to bitter. The two ladies of color were told to call at the Mayor's court the next day and answer to the charge of fighting six days before. The officials then departed. Later another racket was heard on Pea Ridge and they went out and found Asburn wanting to cut Henry's throat. Both were locked up. The next morning the women were fined three and cost, Asburn ten and cost, and Henry for being out after 11 o'clock, two and cost. All settled their fines.

Houses to rent by M. J. Williams.

Mr. R. C. Meaders spent a few days in Gainesville this week.

Mr. J. E. Tate and his mother visited relatives in White county first of this week.

Miss Daisy Sherman of Roswell, Ga., is on a visit to her sister, Mrs. Ansted, at this place.

The business of the Dahlonega post office increased considerably for the month of January.

Mr. Charlie Rice and Will Ward mixed up about something last Monday down at Moore & Bro's stable. A rake and ground biscuits were the principal weapons of the day. No one hurt.

With a thankful heart, we extend an open hand to the many renewals that are coming in on subscription. That's right, if you want the paper don't wait for your name to be dropped before renewing.

Capt. W. J. Worley of this place, has an Indian pipe said to be over a hundred years old. On it is carved a squirrel, sitting eating a hickory nut, causing it to look very attractive as well as beautiful.

Sheriff Davis went out into Dawson county last Monday and arrested West Lingerfelt, and required him to give bond, under a rule for failing to appear here as a witness at the last term of Lumpkin Superior court.

Not long since a petition was sent in by a number of the citizens of Wahoo district, asking that a certain new road be established in that locality. Since then many of the same names appear on a counter petition. This shows that some people don't know what they want.

By grapevine telegraph to the Nugget: It is reported that Jonnie Free and Mrs. Docia Beck had a fight down at one of the mines the other night. By the glare of the electric light Docia saw Jennie sitting in her spicy's lap. This was unendurable and she approached Jennie with a club and used it over her head in a manful manner.

It being too rainy for our old friend, Mr. N. C. Tank to cut canals last Monday, he came to Dahlonega for the first time in several months. The many years of hard struggling in the civil war is beginning to show rapidly on Bony in his declining years. This old gentleman has many friends in Dahlonega who are always glad to meet him. He has been a life long friend to the writer and we would be glad to have visits from him more frequent.

Tuesday's Constitution brings us the joyful news that Hon. F. C. Tate on last Monday secured an order for an additional mail service between Gainesville and Dahlonega, which will give us a double service. This one will run via Garland and Wahoo, in Lumpkin and other post offices in Hall county. This special service will give us a Sunday mail and will begin soon. It was hoped that we would get a schedule fixed so we would be able to receive and reply to letters from Gainesville the same day, but this can't be done as the mail agent don't turn over the nights mail to Postmaster Farlow until 6 o'clock a. m., rendering him unable to get all the other mails off and turn this one over, he says, before 8. So the schedule recommended by the postmasters is as follows: Leave Gainesville at 8 a. m., fast time, and arrive in Dahlonega in 7 hours during the winter season, and quicker the rest of the year, and contractor be allowed to carry passengers, hoop poles, pumpkins, etc., just like the other. And will leave Dahlonega at 11 a. m. If it left here an hour later it would connect with Ellijay, Porter and Morganton. So with this schedule it is but very little improvement over the other route except the extra Sunday mail. No changes will be made on the other daily line to Gainesville.

The mumps are making it interesting to some of the little school children in Dahlonega.

One day last week Mr. Steven Ash of this county, was wedded to Miss Alice Chambers of White.

(Capt. Wilson, the recently appointed commandant of the N. G. A. College arrived last evening.

There will be a box supper and speaking down at Ashley's school house, Saturday night, the 14th of February.

Mr. V. R. Hix was married yesterday to Miss Effie Johnson, a daughter of Mr. D. O. Johnson, of New Bridge, Ga. Rev. D. J. Blackwell officiated.

If you want a nice dress or a pair of good shoes cheap go to E. E. Crisson and any thing in the dress goods line while he is selling out at cost.

Lieut. Fred Price leaves Dahlonega for his command today, expecting however, to spend a day in Atlanta with his sister on his way back.

A number of school boys, who received demerits, are engaged at manual labor on the college grounds at odd times to have them removed.

He who quit a good job and is now said to be engaged in selling blockader liquor in Dahlonega had better stop right now before he comes to grief.

Mr. R. L. McCabe of Ohio, is down looking over the Crown Mountain mine in which he is interested, accompanied by another northern gentleman.

FOR SALE.—Good milk cow, now fresh. For information apply to

Mrs. S. M. COLEMAN,
New Bridge, Ga.

We understand that Mr. Colquitt Head and Mr. "Long" John Anderson of this county, had a little twist the other day about a saw mill trade. Didn't learn which won the belt.

Some of the blockaders, who have been serving out sentences in Fulton county jail returned with a lot of body lice and the itch, and quite a number of people in Shoal Creek district of White and Lumpkin spend much time in clawing and scratching.

The ordinance prohibiting persons from being out after 11 o'clock at night without business, is a good law. It will cause many a parent, living many miles away, to go to bed and sleep sound, by knowing that her son, going to school here, is not allowed to loaf on the streets at a late hour.

Jeff Ward, a lad of about 10 summers, was lodged in the calaboose awhile yesterday because one of J. F. Moore & Co's pocket knives had been in his possession without having been purchased. He swapped it to Mr. W. H. Jones for another knife, and then traded the last one to Mr. J. E. Anderson for an old pistol.

The dwelling house of Mr. James Robinson, near Porter Springs, was destroyed by fire one night last week, together with its entire contents. Mr. Robinson's family was alone at the time, and had it not been for some one passing early before day, going to work, every life might have been lost, as the back end of the building was nearly ready to fall in when it was discovered by the passer by and all were asleep within its walls when he went to the house. How it originated is not known.

Cadet Cochran of Union county, has the small pox at this place down at Mr. J. H. McKee's. During vacation Mr. Cochran went with his father down into lower Georgia with a drove of mules and contracted the disease while away no doubt. The house has been quarantined by the city authorities and every precaution will be used to prevent the breaking out of any contagious disease here. We do not try to keep these things concealed here like most papers do at other places but will keep our readers posted as we have always done.

Mining Notes.

They are plying things hup upon Cazander's Creek ditch now. The force last week was swelled from 75 to 80 hands, and the dirt is being moved at a rapid rate.

We have nothing new to report concerning Crown Mountain gold mine this week. Everything is moving along like clock work, showing up well to the great delight of its managers.

Work is still progressing very nicely on the Briar Patch canal by a small force of hands. They are now on the Consolidated Co's property this side of Mr. Packard's, agreeable arrangements not having been made with the latter gentleman yet.

We are all anxious to see the Briar Patch mine get started for all old miners here say that it is one of the richest mines in this whole country. We heard two say last Tuesday that with four other men they could make a $1,000 the first month with a lift.

Mr. Arnold has about a dozen hands at work down at the Betz mine. This valuable property has been idle for some time and we are glad to see operations begin at it again. This time it is under entirely new management.

We wish the new company much success.

Mr. Tom McDonald and Mr. Mat Wood, who are working under a lease on the Singleton or Standard property, are making it pay. Last week the two alone got out ten tons in three days and milled it for a test and made a little more than 60 pennyweights on the old Singleton mill.

The Calhoun mine still continues to keep up its good record—one of the best mines in Georgia. It has been continuously worked for months and from seven to a thousand pennyweights have been made each month with the labor of from five to six hands at a cost of a little more than two hundred dollars.

We were shown some very beautiful gold ore by Mr. W. H. Courtney last week being recent discoveries made by him on the celebrated Loud property in White county upon which he has successfully been operating for years. The rock was not in the gold of these specimens but it came as near being so as any ore we have seen in years.

The western gentleman here last week visited the Ingersoll and Crisson design boat, which has been operating successfully for a number of years in the Chesta-tee river and saw them make a clean up. They were perfectly delighted and went away feeling fully confident that Lumpkin hills, valleys, creeks and rivers are rich with gold.

Through the kindness of Mr. W. M. Fisher of Columbus, O., we have received a little booklet regarding the United Sulphide Furnace Co., which has recently been organized in Toledo, Ohio, with Dr. S. S. Thorn of Toledo, president, and Dr. J. W. Smith of Pontiac, Mich., vice-president. Mr. Fisher writes us that he will be down next month, and in the near future some of these smelters will be installed on both the Consolidated and Standard properties. Mr. Fisher says this process saves practically all the values of the ores. The furnaces are cheap and ore goes directly from the mine to the furnace and the cost of treating it is very cheap, being the cheapest process ever known. The new method of smelting gold is based on scientific principle. Low grade and refractory ores have been treated successfully and profitably for 18 months of constant operation of two commercial plants of 40 and 60 tons each, daily capacity. It is asserted that at the plant of the Luster Mining Co., located at El Oro, state of Durango, Mexico, two of these little new smelters are now earning the company upwards of half a million dollars a year, while all the various plants of the company, costing a half million dollars, are idle.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE
Makes Kidneys and Bladder Right

The Preacher and the Fish.

The Rev. Cyrus Townsend Brady, the minister-author, has a country house on the Delaware, and is very fond of the shad that run up this broad stream in the spring and early summer, says the Washington Star.
The fishermen of the neighborhood are aware of Mr. Brady's weakness, and take pains to cater to it. They never fail on the first spring casting of the seine, to present one of their fragrant shad to the clergyman.
But last spring the first cast was made on a Sunday, and the fishermen hesitated, therefore, about making Mr. Brady their usual gift. Finally, though they decided to risk it, and one of their number called at the Brady residence with a fine shad.
"Mr. Brady," he said, "I took the liberty of bringing you the fish."
"Thank you, Tom, thank you," said the minister, and he relieved the other of the shad.
"Only I must tell you," said Tom, "that the catch was made on a Sunday sir."
Mr. Brady frowned. He half extended the shad to the fisherman then he half drew it back again.
"Well, Tom he said at length. "I'll keep it anyway. What happened was wrong, but surely it was not this poor fish's fault!"

The Man in Love.

Editor Dick Grubb talks knowingly when he says: "The man who says in love is not insane, but he is merely in trouble."—American Times Recorder.

The man who has never found himself in the state we call love is in deeper troubles than the man to whom Editor Grubb refers. And even if he was insane, he would still be more fortunate than the man who has never been the object of the love of a constant woman. Don't make fun of the man in love. He it is who furnishes the sunshine for the world on cloudy days and lightens the darkness on nights when the moon don't shine. He walks on air and sleeps on downy clouds, and buys up those less fortunate than himself in their despondent hours. He has the little storms of lovers' quarrels and domestic squalls to weather, but these are not "troubles." They only serve to keep love from growing cold, and without them Cupid would soon be forced into bankruptcy. Don't fret about the man in love. He's all right.—Albany Herald.

According to report, there are two hundred and sixty-six periodicals published by students in America, universities and colleges. Of this number 150 are monthlies, 65 are weeklies, 11 are dailies, 12 are quarterlies, 10 are bi-weeklies, 9 are semi-monthlies, 3 are semi-weeklies, and 2 are bi-monthlies.—Intercollegiate News.

Not Musical.

John Smith was the kindest, best-tempered of men, says the Philadelphia Ledger. Everybody spoke well of him. When he died he went straight to heaven. At the door of the abode of bliss he was met by St. Peter, who welcomed him warmly.

"Pray, walk up," said St. Peter, "we are really pleased to meet you."

John started to go up the stairs, when he heard some music.

"What music is that?" asked John, hesitatingly.

"Oh, that!" answered St. Peter, "Why, the angels, ever so many of them, are playing on their harps with the golden strings."

"Do they keep it up?" inquired John, anxiously.

"Certainly they do, for there is neither day nor night here," said the saint. They keep on harping all the time."

John halted on the steps. "What is going on below?" he inquired. "Why there is the furnace there and a concert hall, and maybe a variety show."

"Any music?" asked John.

"Music? Well, you may call it music, but it does not amount to much. There you are not forced to listen to it, if you don't want to," was St. Peter's reply.

Then John Smith walked down several steps and said: "I think I'll take my chance below. You see, when on earth I lived in a flat in Brooklyn, and in the next apartment, with only a thin partition between, there was a pianist who played a pianola all the time, and it made me so weary of life that I was glad when I passed away. No more music in mine."

Advertised the Town.

The citizens of a wide awake Illinois town recently erected a monument sign near the passenger depot calling attention to the many advantages possessed by the town. It is a splendid advertisement and is read by hundreds of people who pass on the trains every day.

Jaws

Tightly Locked From Nervous Spasms.

Physicians Could Not Prevent Fits.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure My Wife.

Dr. Miles' Nerve Cure has successfully tried in thousands of cases of nervous disorders, but never has it made a better record than when used in the treatment of fits or spasms. Thousands of testimonies are on hand, and nearly every instance the writer has stated that the fits ceased after the first dose of Nerve Cure was given. The statement is repeated in the following:
"Seven years ago my wife commenced having spasms of fits and I called in my home physician and he said she was paralyzed. He rubbed her with salt water and gave her calomel and she eventually got some better, but in a short time she had another attack. She was confined to her bed for three months and the doctor could not help her. She had fits frequently, some times very severe. Her hands would cramp so we could not open them and she finally got so her jaws would become locked. Finally I saw in a paper a notice of Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and I bought some. She has taken a number of bottles and has never had a fit since taking the pills. She also thinks very highly of Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and is never without them. If there is any way of making this testimonial stronger do so because of the good the Dr. Miles' Restorative Nerve did my wife."—WM. V. ALLEN, P. M., Elkville, Miss.

Consumption Cured

Foley & Co., Chicago. Dana, Ind., Sept. 28, 1902.
Gentlemen:—FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR cured me of consumption after I had suffered two years and was almost desperate. Three physicians failed to give me any relief and the last one said he could do me no good. I tried almost every medicine I heard tell of without benefit until FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR was recommended to me. Its effect right from the start was magical. I improved steadily from the first dose and am now sound and well, and think FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR is a God-send to people with Throat and Lung Trouble.
Yours very truly, Mrs. Mary Ambrose.

FOLEY'S HONEY AND TAR
